Holiday-Lynch Wedding Solemnized Wednesday

The marriage of Miss Terry Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lynch of Smyrna, to Mr. Wallace Holiday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Holiday of Painted Post, N. Y., was solemnized Wednesday, Dec. 14, in the Missionary Baptist Church, Smyrna.

The Rev. Caleb Goodwin officiated. Mrs. Henry Murphy, pianist, gave a program of nuptial music and Miss Hazel Lynch was soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a winter white dress and carried a Bible topped with a purple-throated white orchid.

Mrs. Euclid Wade, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a turquoise blue dress with black accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Pete J. Asterina was best man and Sheldon Willis served as usher.

Mrs. Lynch, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the wedding ceremony, a cake cutting was held at the home of Mrs. Julia Willis, grandmother of the bride.

Before leaving on a wedding trip the bride changed into an oxford grey suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The newly-married couple will make their home in Corning, N. Y.

Two Cars Collide Near Newport

Two cars collided at 1:45 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Highway 70 and the Masontown Road near Newport.

Mary Sue Ratliffe, driver of a 1953 DeSoto, has been charged with failure to yield the right-of-way. According to State Highway Patrolman W. E. Pickard, she was pulling out of the Masontown Road and turned east, colliding with a 1949 Oldsmobile going east on Highway 70.

The Oldsmobile was driven by Donald E. Franks, Cherry Point. Franks said he saw the DeSoto but couldn't stop in time to avoid a collision.

No one was hurt. Damage to the Oldsmobile was estimated at $150 and damage to the DeSoto at $100.

Attending the beef cattle conference at Raleigh today and tomorrow will be Fletcher, Taylor, Harlowe, Grover Davis, Davis, and R. M. Williams, county agent.
