A program of music will be given by the young people of the four churches, and every-one in the community is invited to attend this welcome ser-

Mr. Smith is originally from Sacramento, Calif. Planning to make the ministry his life work, it was through the influence of his own pastor, an Asbury graduate, that he became interested in Asbury college two years ago. The vacancy at Highlands was brought to his attention through brought to his attention through one of the members of the church here, and on applica-tion to the District Superinten-dent, Dr. W. L. Hutchins, he was called to the pastorate of the churches in the Highlands

At present, Mr. Smith is living halone in the parsonage, but hopes later to have his mother come on from California and make her home with him.

EVITT-CHASTAIN

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Maxine Evitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Evitt of Glenville, to Henry Chastain, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aylor Chastain of Chastain, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Aylor Chastain of Highlands. The ceremony was performed in Clayton, Ga., on December 13. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chastain, brother and sister-thas and daughters, Mary Bascom and Beverly, and Mrs. Cook's sister, Mrs. George Jeffrey and daughter, Nancy, of Wilmington, plan to leave this week for Akert Chastain, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom ac-companied the couple to Clay-

For her wedding, the bride wore an aqua blue model of wool crepe with brown acces-sories and a corsage of pale blue tulips.

The bridegroom is in the medical corps of the U. S. Army and is stationed at Ft. Lewis, Washington. He returned this week to duty and Mrs. Chastain has returned to her defense work in Gastonia. fense work in Gastonia.

BICYCLING POPULAR SPORT

Like bicycling? Then why not join Rev. H. M. Alley and William Henry, high school student, on some of their jaunts? Last Saturday they bicycled to the top of Rabun Bald mountain, an elevation of 4717 feet and an elevation of 4,717 feet and spent the day, making the trip up the mountain in three hours and the return trip in fifteen minutes less time. According to Mr. Alley, the top of Rabun af-fords one of the most perfect cycloramas of majestic moun-tain scenery in the entire Blue Ridge range.
