Home for Aged Will Open April 1

Mrs. Gretchen Brinkley, New Bern, has announced that she will open a convalescent home and home for the aged April 1 near New Bern.

The home, to be known as the French Memorial Home for the aged, is located on the Neuse River off Highway 70 two miles east of New Bern. It is of concrete block construction and will accommodate 18 persons.

Mrs. Brinkley has operated for the past two years a home called Rest Haven, which was also located near New Bern. The home to be opened next month is named for Mrs. Brinkley's nephew, Louis French III, who died at the age of 13 as the result of cancer of the brain.

Mrs. Brinkley says that one bed and care will be donated by the home to a member of the Presbyterian Church. Furnishings in the room, she said, will be donated by her father, L. H. French, and brother, L. H. French Jr.

W. S. King Girls Attend Fashion Show at Durham

By PEGGY BREWINGTON and FANNIE MAY

Our dreams really came true last Friday morning. We had been working on dresses, skirts and blouses and bermuda shorts to model at the Annual Home Makers Fashion Show which was held in Durham last Friday.

This was our first trip and our first time to participate in the fashion show so, you can imagine how thrilled and excited we were. When North Carolina College at Durham is mentioned, a former student of ours who was a star athlete at N. C. S. and John Henry Daugherty who excelled as a scholar there and also Weldon Wiloughby who is attending college there now.

You can imagine how eager we were to get to Durham.

Registration was over by 9:30. It was disclosed at this time that a total of 19 high schools throughout North Carolina had registered. After registration, we toured the beautiful campus of North Carolina College. We really enjoyed this.

A movie followed the tour, then we visited the Home Economics Department which was really out of this world. A demonstration was given by the students of this department. They were college students majoring in Home Economics. They really knew what they were doing.

We had lunch and then it was time for the fashion show. The theme for this occasion was New Horizons in Home Economics. Time for the fashion show our excitement really reached its peak; we wanted to model our dresses. We suppose, most of all, we wanted to know if any other group had done as well as we thought we had done. Well we were soon to find out—they had done very well. We saw some gorgeous gowns, but we still think that ours were gorgeous too.

We didn't get grades and prizes, but we received some valuable criticism which will mean more to us than extrinsic values.

Fannie May made her second debut in Nu Alpha Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Talent Hunt Sunday evening in Wilson. Fannie won second prize in New Bern, this gave her right to participate in the District Talent Hunt with contestants from Kinston district, Wilson district, Greenville district, Washington district, Goldsboro district, Tarboro district and New Bern district, which Morehead City is in. Fannie didn't win in Wilson, but she received honorable mention.

Fannie is just a sophomore so she has two more years to try for first prize.

The contestants were judged on the following: talent 25 per cent, technique 25 per cent, stage presence 25 per cent and difficulty and mastery 25 per cent. Mr. Lee Howard, professor of music from Atlantic Christian College was the judge.

He mentioned that Fannie knew her piece very well, but she didn't put herself enough in it. Thus Saith The Lord, sung by Willie Jones, of C. M. Epps High School of Greenville won first prize. Ole Man River, by Tyrone Reece won second prize. Reece is from P. E. Jones High School of Washington, N. C. Oh What A Beautiful City, done by Jessie Daves of J. T. Barber High School, New Bern, won third prize.

The seventh grade under the sponsorship of Mr. C. E. Smith will present their chapel program today on the month of March. The program will begin at 1:20. Symbols and quotations about March and a special solo by Owen White and a special solo on the trumpet by Curley Beeton will be given. The public is always invited to our programs and invited to visit our school.

The first and second grades of the W. S. King School will present an operetta, The Children of Old Mother Goose, on Thursday night, March 29, at 8. The children become dissatisfied at the treatment of old Mother Goose and try to find a new mother.

The characters are Old Mother Goose, Sharon Monroe; The Old Woman Who Lives in The Shoe, Ruby Horton; Old Mother Hubbard, Alice Mattox, and all the other children of Old Mother Goose.

Mr. Eli Martin, Havelock, and William Ward, Newport, were discharged from the Morehead City Hospital Sunday.

The Parent-Teacher Association of W. S. King School will meet Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Members of Walter's Chapel, A.M.E. Church, Newport, held their regular meeting Friday, March 16, at the home of Mrs. Bertha Harkley. Plans for a penny rally were discussed. Refreshments were served.

There will be a chapel board meeting tonight at 7:30.
