Mother-Daughter Dinner Held by Girls Auxiliary

The junior and intermediate members of the Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church, and their mothers, were honored at a mother-daughter banquet Thursday night at the church. There were 60 present.

Dixie Parker gave the welcome. Mrs. Frank Cheek presented the invocation. During dinner, Virginia Thompson offered a toast to the mothers. Mrs. J. W. Thompson responded.

Natalie Killman gave a toast to the Women's Missionary Union and Mrs. Leslie Brinson told of the merits of the Girls Auxiliary. Miss Jane Marshall Jenkins, New Bern, was the speaker. Her topic was Going Forward.

The dinner was prepared by the Addie H. Jones and Ida Webb Eaton Circles of the church, and served by the Edith Broadway and Mable Piner Circles. Arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. A. H. McDonald.

The benediction was given by Miss Joyce Taylor. Decorations of spring flowers and greenery were used. Corsages of red and white carnations were presented to Miss Jenkins and her mother.

Wedding

The cake was on a table with a pink cloth overlaid with white lace table cloth. There were three-branched crystal candelabra on either side with a centerpiece of pink snapdragons and baby breath in a cut crystal bowl.

The punch was pink, the cake's frosting was of pink and white, and the hostess also served pink mints and nuts. Flowers used to decorate the home were magnolia leaves, larkspur in lavender, white and pink, and pink rosebuds. Pink candles were used in candle holders of crystal and brass.
