Motorist Pleads Guilty Thursday To Drunk Count

Herbert Springle, charged with driving drunk, pleaded guilty before Judge Lambert R. Morris in County Recorder's Court last Thursday and was sentenced to work on the roads for three months. The sentence was suspended upon payment of $100 and costs within 60 days.

On a public drunkenness charge, John Ellison pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 30 days on the roads. His sentence was also suspended on condition he remain sober and stay on good behavior one year, pay a fine of $10 and costs.

A three-month sentence given Clyde Allison Copes was suspended upon payment of $25 fine and costs. Copes pleaded guilty to a charge of careless and reckless driving and operating with an improper license.

Costs were assessed Tom Noe, Beaufort, in lieu of a 30-day road sentence. He was charged with driving with an expired license. Noe pleaded guilty. A $15 fine and costs were assessed against Edward Hill for disturbing the peace.

Lloyd Harrell Fulcher and Joseph F. Drayer were given suspended sentences upon payment of costs on speeding charges.

Bonds were forfeited by Clyde Dixon Barnes, speeding; Lambert Hack, improper use of dealer plates and George Huntley Styron, speeding.

Charges against L. Pierson Willis, assault, and Pete Davis, larceny, were left open for future prosecution. The state dropped charges against Doris Elaine Klitzke, expired operator's permit; Joseph Gionelli, seduction and embezzlement and Charlie Sloan, use of profane language.

Director Gives Report On Recreation Program

Fred Lewis gave a report on the Morehead City Recreation program at the weekly meeting of the Morehead City Rotary Club last Thursday at Fleming's Restaurant.

Mr. Lewis pointed out that during the past year a 20,000 attendance figure was chalked up at the recreation building.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were Lee Nance, Ayden; Dick Parker, Kinston, and Lawrence Stroud, Carl Page and Gene West, Greenville.

Coast Guard Cadets Train

This is the training bark Eagle aboard which Cadet O'Donnell is training with 325 other cadets.

Robert N. O'Donnell ... former resident here

Coast Guard Cadet Robert N. O'Donnell, a graduate of Morehead City School, is at Havana, Cuba with the U.S. Coast Guard Cadet Practice Squadron on its annual summer training cruise.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. O'Donnell, Cocoa, Fla., O'Donnell is a sophomore at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn.

He has been at sea since June 11 when the squadron left New London. Other Caribbean ports which the squadron visited were San Juan, Puerto Rico and Coco Solo, Canal Zone.

Chamber Suffers From 'No Money'

Joe DuBois, manager of the Morehead City Chamber of Commerce, has released a financial statement on the organization as of July 17, 1956.

The 1956 budget totals $12,173.01. Thus far receipts total $6,420.12, of which $615 was for advertising, and some of that must be refunded. Expenditures since Jan. 1, 1956 have been $6,377.81. This left the chamber with a balance of $42.31 on July 17.

In the budget for this year $4,200 is allotted for the manager; $1,900 for the secretary; and $900 for the manager's expenses. Office expense, phone, postage, heat and supplies, $1,700; advertising, $1,080, and debt retirement, $2,693.01.

Manager DuBois asks that folks pay their dues so that the chamber may continue operation.

Highway Patrolmen Will Help Direct Traffic

The State Highway Patrol will be in charge of directing traffic at the Miss North Carolina Pageant this weekend, according to Dr. Russell Outlaw, co-chairman.

Morehead City Jaycees are supervising the parking lot at the race track.

July 24—Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Carpenter of Key West, Fla., are spending a few weeks in Smyrna.

Mrs. Terrel Huffman and children have returned to Jacksonville, Fla., after spending several days with the E. H. Heady family.

Mr. Ikie Wade left Sunday to spend a few days at Harborton, Va.

Mrs. Dolly Taylor and family are visiting in Glen Cove, Fla.

Mrs. Hilda McEchaney and family of Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gillikin.

Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Chadwick spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and daughter.

TWO CHAMPIONS OF THE ROAD... both Chevrolets!

To the eye, the new Corvette and the new Chevrolet are far different. But these two champions have one superb quality in common—both were born to cling to the road as though they were part of it!

Chevrolet's astonishing roadability is a big reason why it's America's short track stock car racing champion. It can and does out-run and out-handle cars with 100 more horsepower. When you wed rock-solid stability to superb engines such as the 225-h.p. V8 that flashed the Corvette to a new American sports car record—then you get a real championship combination. Stop by for a sample!

America's largest selling car—2 million more owners than any other make.
