Sergeant Joins Signal Company, Fort Gordon

Fort Gordon, Ga. — Army Sgt. Theodore M. Beeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Beeton, 1207 Fisher St., Morehead City, recently was assigned to the 206th Signal Company at Fort Gordon, Ga.

Sergeant Beeton, a supervisor in the company, entered the Army in 1952 and completed basic training at Fort Gordon.

The 23-year-old soldier attended Elizabeth City State Teachers College. His wife, Josie, lives in Augusta, Ga.

Great Lakes, Ill.—Wave Julia A. Congleton, seaman, USN, daughter of Mrs. R. F. Newman of 308 Moore St., Beaufort, is serving with the Fleet Home Town News Center at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

She is attached to the mailing room at the news center which disseminates news releases on Navy and Marine Personnel. Before entering the service in 1955, Miss Congleton graduated from Beaufort High School.

Almer F. Queen Jr., right, a graduate of Beaufort High School, re-enlists in the Navy for four years. He is an aviation electronics technician first class. Here he is congratulated by his commanding officer, Capt. R. G. Dose, who administered the re-enlistment oath.

Goose Air Base, Labrador—Airman Third Class Graham B. Bradshaw, route 2 Newport, a helicopter mechanic currently stationed at this Northeast Air Command base on the edge of the Canadian Arctic, is a member of the 8614th Air Transport Group which recently received the United States Air Force Flying Safety Award.

Airman Bradshaw is assigned to the Group's 22nd Helicopter Squadron which operates over an area one-third the size of the United States.

Although assigned the mission of flying personnel, supplies and equipment over hazardous Arctic areas of Canada and Greenland, the Group's three squadrons surpassed all other Air Force units with its flying safety record.

Airman Bradshaw has served with the United States Air Force the past year. Following graduation from Newport High School where he participated in basketball and baseball and won the baseball sportsmanship letter, Airman Bradshaw attended the Air Force helicopter mechanic school at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, graduated as a certified helicopter mechanic.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Bradshaw.

Airman Vernon W. Goodwin, 18, son of Mrs. T. V. Goodwin, 907 Shepard St., Morehead City, has completed the first phase of military training at the "Gateway to the Air Force," Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Tex.

He has qualified for specialized technical training and will be assigned to 3436th Student Squadron, Lowry AFB, Colo.

While at Lackland the new enlistee undergoes the transition from civilian to airman through a program which includes processing, aptitude testing, physical conditioning, survival and weapons training, and varied classroom studies ranging from citizenship to military customs and courtesies.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church had a mission study class Friday evening, with Mrs. Hamilton of Cherry Point teaching the course.

A number of visitors attended and all reported a very interesting and inspiring message.

An intermission was given and the ladies served cake and coffee.
