Lt. Cmdr. MacCormack Speaks to Art Group

Lt. Cmdr. John MacCormack of Atlantic spoke to the Literary and Art Department Wednesday night at the civic center. He was introduced by Mrs. W. C. Carlton, program chairman.

Mr. MacCormack brought a number of his oil paintings and wood carvings which he exhibited. Mr. MacCormack said that anyone can do anything if he tries hard enough. He told how he became interested in art when his chief petty officer in the Navy showed him how to mix paints. His commanding officer asked him to do portraits of his children and he has been painting ever since.

His hobby is ship models and he said he became interested in wood carving when he carved a figurehead for one of his models.

A discussion period was held and questions were asked of the speaker.

The meeting was opened with the club collect and the singing of The Old North State. Mrs. Gus Davis, chairman, welcomed the speaker and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Salisbury as guests.

Mrs. Milton Roush, secretary, read a letter of thanks from Mr. Lenwood Lee, school principal, for a donation to the underprivileged children fund. Mrs. S. A. Horton, treasurer, reported 100 per cent dues paid.

Mrs. W. L. Brady presented the following officers nominated for the coming year:

Mrs. Roush, chairman; Mrs. W. B. Chalk, vice-chairman; Mrs. Bernard Leary, secretary; Mrs. Owens Frederick, treasurer.

A tribute to the late Mrs. Elodie Webb Arthur, a long-standing department member, was paid by Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Carlton and her committee were thanked for the fine programs given this year.

It was announced that next month a musical program will be presented by Mrs. Herbert Webb of Sea Level. She will play Aida by Verdi.

The hostesses were Mrs. W. L. Derrickson, Mrs. Malcolm Goodwin, Mrs. A. F. Chestnut, Mrs. J. W. Thompson Jr. and Mrs. J. W. Jackson. They served ice cream, brownies, coconut macaroons and mixed nuts.

Officers Are Elected By Junior Woman's Club

The Morehead City Junior Woman's Club elected officers at their meeting Monday night at the civic center. The following were elected: Mrs. Coolidge Merrill, president; Mrs. Thomas Noe, first vice-president; Mrs. Jerry Norris, second vice-president; Mrs. Dick Parker, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Spears, recording secretary; Mrs. Shelby Freeman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Harry Venters, historian.

Mrs. Bill Baugham introduced the speaker, Mrs. A. B. Roberts. She spoke on the life of Albert Schweitzer and showed pictures of different phases of his career. The hostesses, Mrs. M. T. Mills, Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Rufus Butner, and Mrs. Roy Hutchins served sandwiches, potato chips and colas.

Rebecca Haney Observes Birthday on Wednesday

Miss Rebecca Haney celebrated her tenth birthday Wednesday with a party at the civic center from 3:30 until 5. Guests were members of her Brownie troop.

Games and contests were enjoyed. A two-tiered birthday cake was served with ice cream and punch. Mrs. J. C. Haney and Mrs. Peggy Donnelly served. The honoree received many gifts.

Attending were Sue Bullock, Carolyn Davis, Marlina Joyner, Frances Krouse, Linda Litton, Maureen Lewis, Barbara Mayo, Brenda Nelson, Sharon Piner, Grace Roberts. Faye Sanderson, Jemma Seitter, Peggy Smith, Martha Ann Willis, Donna Wilkins, and Susie White.

The Junior Catholic Daughters of America met Feb. 17 at St. Ebert's School. President Sarah Roarty opened the meeting, the secretary read the minutes and the treasurer collected dues.

The rest of the meeting was devoted to making papier mache animals for the Catholic Orphanage at Nazareth, N. C.

WSSC to Meet
The WSSC of Franklin Memorial Methodist Church will meet at 7:30 Monday night at the church.

Profits from Bridge Benefit Will Send Girl Scouts to Camp

Girl Scout Troop No. 97, under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Roberts Jr., and sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club will receive camping expense money for a three-day camping expedition in August to Camp Trailee, Goldsboro.

Money for the trip will be provided from the profits of the Girl Scout bridge benefit held by the Junior Woman's Club on Wednesday afternoon at the Rex Restaurant.

A total of $50 profit was realized and any funds above camp expense will be used to meet the needs of other local troops.

Lady Baltimore cake and coffee were served at the beginning of play and a coffee was served throughout the afternoon. Door prizes were distributed to persons holding lucky numbers during progression of play.

Winners of door prizes were Mrs. Jerry Norris, a potted hyacinth from Mrs. E. P. Spence; Mrs. Betty Porter, satin quilted coat hangers from Belk's; Mrs. Romelda Sheppard, a linen handkerchief from Clara's; Mrs. Jean Morrison, towels from D. B. Webb's.

Mrs. C. R. Davant towels from the Morehead City Drug Co.; Mrs. W. E. Pickard, earrings from The Ladies Shop; Mrs. Bill Baugham, a silk scarf from Styron's; Mrs. Margaret Fredricks, tv slippers from Adler's; Mrs. Jack Holt, a five dollar gift certificate from Colonial Stores.

Mrs. Louise Kennedy, a foam rubber sofa pillow from Hamilton's Furniture Co.; Mrs. Mike Brady a crystal service set from Walter S. Morris, Jeweler; Mrs. Norman Wade, a silver bracelet from Town and Sound Shop; Mrs. Edna Mason, a vase from Morehead City Florist; and Mrs. Roma Styron, coffee from Piggly Wiggly.

High table prizes were won by Mrs. Alton Vick, a shampoo and set from Hilma's Beauty Shop; Mrs. Betsy McClain, a shampoo and set from Erma's Beauty Shop; Mrs. Hugh Porter, a grease job from Parker Motors; Mrs. Betty Jones, five gallons of gas from Whaley's Texaco Station.

Mrs. Jerry Norris, a gift certificate from Goodwin's Drug Co.; Mrs. Jean Morrison, theatre passes and a gift certificate from Carteret Drug; Mrs. Neva James, an ash tray set from Dee Gee's.

Mrs. Paul Geer Jr., dry cleaning from Chadwick's and two theatre passes; Mrs. Bill Baugham, laundry service from Whiteway Laundry; Mrs. Ruth Deyo, a wastebasket from the R&N Furniture Co.; Mrs. Joe Beam, two shore dinners from the Sanitary Fish Market.

Mrs. Kenneth Fischer, a half gallon of ice cream and two theatre passes; Mrs. Norman Wade, two lunches from the Busy Bee Cafe; Mrs. Arlene Thompson, two theatre passes and two pizzaburgers with drinks from Dom-El's.

Mrs. Alan Ferebee, two spaghetti dinners from the Rex Restaurant; Mrs. Nell Hoogendam, two ice cream pies from Maola and two theatre passes.

All theatre passes were donated by Mr. O. J. Morrow of the Morehead Theatre. Five gallons of gas from Garner's Gulf Station and dry cleaning service from Rainbow Cleaners were also donated, but the names of persons receiving these prizes were not available.

Tallies for the benefit were made by members of troop 97 in the form of the Girl Scout emblem. Chairman of the decoration committee was Mrs. Rufus Butner. General co-chairmen of the benefit were Mrs. Hugh Stiles and Mrs. Dick Parker.

Working on the prize committee were Mrs. Silas Thorne, Mrs. Jerry Norris and Mrs. Thomas L. Noe. Both the Girl Scouts and the Junior Woman's Club thank all businesses donating prizes, not only for their contributions, but for their generous response to the request.

Three Baptist Groups Enjoy Supper Monday

Members of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Brotherhood and the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the First Baptist Church and their guests enjoyed a covered dish supper Monday night at the church.

Grace was said by John T. Oglesby. Frank Moran, J. Warren Beck and W. C. Carlton gave a review of the book Look, Look the Cities. A love offering was taken to buy school lunches. Eugene Espy pronounced the benediction.

In keeping with the theme of cities, Mrs. Leland Day's seventh grade had made a miniature city. A floral arrangement of red and white carnations was placed in memory of Mrs. J. F. Giddens. Blue and red candles and American flags were used in observance of George Washington's birthday.

Garden Club Members Attend Lecture Thursday

Four members of the Garden and Civic Department attended a lecture and demonstration on Flower Arrangements for all Occasions in Jacksonville last Thursday.

Mrs. Dorothy Beddle, editor of the Popular Garden Club magazine, was speaker. The program was sponsored by the Jacksonville Garden Council.

Those attending were Mrs. C. R. Davant, Mrs. M. J. Loutit, Miss Amie Klein and Mrs. F. C. Salisbury.

Lanier Book Club Hears About Mardi Gras

Mrs. Virginia Bradbury spoke on the New Orleans Mardi Gras at the meeting of the Lanier Book Club Tuesday night at the civic center.

Mrs. Bradbury was introduced by Mrs. Byrd Wade, who was in charge of the program.

She told of the origin of Mardi Gras, traditionally a period of feasting and revelry before Ash Wednesday. She described "carnival" as it is observed in New Orleans, where she lived for a number of years.

To illustrate her talk, she showed the types of favors tossed to parade spectators and showed newspaper pictures of this year's Mardi Gras.

During the business session, the club decided to cancel the March 11 meeting. The next meeting will be at 8 Tuesday night, March 25, at the home of Mrs. John Lashley. Easter will be the program topic. The March 11 meeting was cancelled because of conflicting church meetings.

Miss Amie Klein, secretary, read the roll and members responded with current events topics. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved. Mrs. Louis Norris presided.

The hostess, Miss Lillian Frances Giddens, served cherry pie a la mode topped with a maraschino cherry and tiny American flag, coffee and salted nuts.

A bouquet of red carnations and white chrysanthemums was used in decoration. Miss Ruth Peeling was a guest of the hostess.
