Eastern Star Members To Dine, See Comedy Skit

Tickets which cover the cost of the dinner and the program will be $1.25 a plate for adults and 75 cents for children. Persons who prefer to have dinner at home and who are unable to stay for the entertainment may have plates to take out. Turkey with dressing, a variety of vegetables, relishes, hot rolls, coffee, and home made pie will be served.

Mrs. Julius Nelson is program chairman. The cast includes Mrs. Bedford Dowdy, Mrs. Thomas L. Noe, Mrs. Gerald Mitchell, Mrs. Merritt Bridgeman, Mrs. Cicero Hardison, Mrs. James Ross and Mrs. Catherine Davenport.

According to Mrs. Nelson, this cast though small in number and uncertain of talent, is sure to provide a lot of laughs for everyone.

Worthy Matron Mrs. George C. Dunn emphasizes the occasion as an especially fine one for the entire family for the supper begins early enough to insure that the entertainment, which is sure to delight the youngsters too, will be concluded by a proper bedtime.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Frank Reams, Mrs. Dunn, or Mrs. Nelson.

The Eagle Eye is upon you!

Beta Club
Six members of Morehead City High School's Beta Club traveled to Newport High School Thursday morning, March 6. Newport High is interested in organizing a Beta Club and the purpose of these students' trip was to give a program explaining the meaning, objectives, history and standards of the Beta Club, to the Newport High students.

The six students were Guy Sabiston, David Nelson, Darden Eure, Romelda Sheppard, Jenny Lou Smithwick, and Frank Sanderson. These six spoke on the history of the National Beta Club, the meaning of the Beta Club to a school student, the standards of membership and the meaning of the Beta emblem.

The program was concluded after the singing of the Beta Club song by Frank Sanderson, Darden Eure, David Nelson, and Guy Sabiston.

The Beta Club expresses its thanks to Mr. Comer, principal of Newport High School, for his invitation to come and give the program. Best wishes and the best of luck to a new Beta Club and to the students who will soon be members.

Representative Visits
On Tuesday, March 4, Mr. Robert Morris of the Central Intelligence Agency of Washington, D. C., came to the Morehead City High School to talk to senior city typing students.

Mr. Morris spoke to the girls of the many advantages of a typist's job in Washington, and showed the girls pictures of the buildings where they might work or live. The few disadvantages were overshadowed by the advantages, which were many.

Of the twenty-five girls present, the crowd slowly dwindled to three.

AGNES MARIE CURRIER
Agnes Marie Currier, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Currier, died at her home at Mill Creek Saturday. Funeral services were conducted Sunday at the home and burial was in the Curtis cemetery.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a.m. and the meeting will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Following the meeting the delegates will go to Sanitary Restaurant for lunch.

who were willing to accept all the changes and "pack their bags and leave mom." These three were Phyllis O'Boyle, Jessie White, and Laura Adams.

They are to take a two and one-half hour screening test as an application form which will be sent to Washington. After the girls have finished the forms, Mr. Morris will return and give them written tests as further screening.

FHA Buffet Supper
Eighty-five Future Homemakers and mothers attended a buffet supper in the library of Morehead City High School on Tuesday evening. A fiesta was used as the motif for the decorations. Serapes in gay colors, sombreros, baskets and pottery, and bright candles in waxed bottles decorated the tables where the guests ate.

Favors were senoras. The buffet table had a large centerpiece of fruit on a gay serape with large bottle candle holders.

Jessie White, president, welcomed the mothers, dedicating this gathering to them as a token of the girls' gratitude for what the mothers mean to them. After using the opening ceremony of the FHA, and singing the prayer song, supper was served.

This consisted of barbecued chicken, stuffed baked potatoes, baby limas, homemade rolls, deviled eggs, relishes, cream puffs, iced tea and coffee.

For the program Sarita Bedsworth led in an action song and in a round, Linda Lockhart gave a Spanish Dance, while Doris Farmer and Donna Guthrie gave an American interpretation.

A game of charades was played, several tables taking a slip from the Pinata (grab bag) and other tables guessing what movie or song they were interpreting.

As a more serious part of the program, Janice Lovick conducted a panel discussion with three mothers and four girls taking part.
