

Wed in Eure Chapel

Mrs. Robert Lee Russell Jr.

Miss Carol Jean Smith of Indianapolis, Ind., and Robert Lee Russell Jr. of Beaufort were united in marriage Saturday evening at six-thirty in the chapel of the N. F. Eure Building, Beaufort. The Rev. John Cline, pastor of the Ann Street Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith, 1658 E. Sumner, Indianapolis, Ind. The bridegroom is the son of Robert L. Russell of Beaufort and Mrs. Warren Taylor of Morehead City. The altar of the chapel held an arrangement of gladiolas and greenery. Mr. Dean Chatlos of Morehead City, pianist, provided nuptial music. The bride entered the chapel alone. She wore a waltz-length gown of lace over taffeta fashioned with a fitted bodice and full pleated skirt of lace. The bodice featured a low neckline in front and back bound with satin. A satin cummerbund formed a large bow in back. Over the gown she wore a jacket of lace with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. She wore a shoulder-length veil of illusion edged in lace, which fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a prayer book topped with yellow carnations and showered with lilies of the valley and satin streamers. Mrs. Dean Chatlos of Morehead City, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a street-length pink dress fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice. The bodice featured a boat neckline and three-quarter sleeves. She wore a pink half-hat of feathers and pink gloves. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations. Mr. Russell Sr. served his son as best man. Mrs. Taylor, mother of the groom, wore a beige brocade sheath dress and a corsage of pink carnations. Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner for the bridal party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wininger, Newport. After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 729 Macon Court, Morehead City. The bride is a graduate of Manual Training High School and attended the School of Nursing at Methodist Hospital for a year. She was formerly employed at Mary-

ENTERING A NEW HALF CENTURY JEFFERSON STANDARD REPORTS TO POLICYHOLDERS

This 51st Annual Report reflects another successful year of operations for Jefferson Standard.

Life insurance sales for 1957 were $229,822,210, an increase over 1956 of nearly $6,000,000. Total insurance in force as of December 31 amounted to $1,708,566,863, an increase of 7.8% for the year.

At the end of the year, Company assets amounted to $496,805,341, an increase of $33,870,398 during 1957.

Payments to policyholders and beneficiaries in 1957 amounted to $23,292,416, 63% of which went to living policyholders. During the half century of Company service just closed, the basic purpose of life insurance has been served by the payment of more than $321,921,296 to our policyholders and beneficiaries.

Jefferson Standard, now guaranteeing 2 1/2% on policies currently issued, has never paid less than 4% interest on dividend accumulations and on policy proceeds left with the Company to provide income. 4% is the highest rate paid by any major life insurance company in the United States. This means extra income to policyholders and beneficiaries.
