Seniors to Give Play

Members of the senior class are at present in rehearsals, preparing for the forthcoming senior play, Everybody's Crazy Now, a three-act farce comedy by Don Pierce.

The play takes place in a small country town, Sunnyfield, in the summer.

Sabra Eubanks plays June Austin, an 18-year-old girl just returning home from a finishing school. Pat West is cast as her mother, Ada Austin. She is an efficient, sensible woman in her early forties. Bonnie Fish acts the part of June's best friend, Nan York.

Virginia Morris as Gysia Arndt, portrays a sophisticated woman of the world in her thirties. Betty Lind Eure is the maid, Hetty Metcalf, who isn't quite right mentally.

Lew Phillips portrays a young engineer, Greg Beecher, who is June's boyfriend. Darden Eure plays Stan Barbour, a young graduate of osteopathic school, who is in love with Nan.

Malcolm Goodwin is cast as Basil Lindsay, a forceful man and famous author. David Nelson is Hiram Dill, an elderly man interested only in buying the Austin home. Frank Sanderson as Lee Tyson impersonates a gigolo.

The play is under the direction of Miss Hortense Boomer and Romelda Sheppard.

Committees have been set up to aid in the production. If you are a senior and would like to help in any way, see the chairmen of these committees:

Staging and Production: Ethan Davis, general chairman; lighting: Gordon Patrick; scenery: Sherrill Norman; properties: Margaret Guthrie, Billy Fulcher; publicity: Romelda Sheppard, chairman. Deanie Adams, Phyllis O'Boyle, and Barbara Reid; tickets: Bill Munden and Catherine Lohr, co-chairmen; prompters: Jane Oglesby, Faye Jones.

Mrs. Dowdy is advisor to the publicity committee; Mrs. Bailey, to the production committee; and Mrs. Phillips, to the ticket sales committee.

So take down the calendar from the wall and get out your red pencil. Circle April 18, and be sure to attend this hilarious play, Everybody's Crazy Now.

4-H Meeting

The 4-H Club opened its March meeting with a Pledge of Allegiance and the 4-H Pledge. The group sang God Bless America and were led in the devotion by Oakie Lewis. Mike Lewis reminded the members of The Value of a Smile and Anne Herbert read a poem.

When the group divided, Mrs. Garner taught the girls new sewing techniques and terminated with a few pointers on recreation. Mr. Venters discussed with the boys an electrical workshop and home beautification.

You are invited to make the 4-H Pledge your pledge:

I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my hands to better service, my heart to greater loyalty, and my health to better living for my club, my community, and my country.

Library Club Meets

The Morehead High School Library Club met Tuesday, March 11, in the elementary library. The meeting was called to order by the president, Phyllis O'Boyle. Ashley Jarman gave the devotions. Clarence Styrton, vice-president of the club, reported on the story hour which is held each month in connection with the PTA meeting.

Miss Cora Bomar, state supervisor of school libraries has asked permission to use a story about this project in her library letter which goes to all school librarians in the state.

Clarence reported that the officers of the club visited the Beaufort High School Library Club recently and had a wonderful time. It is hoped that a joint meeting of the two clubs can be held sometime this year.

Jessie White showed the club some pictures which were taken during this visit and which the Beaufort club had graciously sent to her for the MCHS Club's scrapbook.

A letter giving information about the North Carolina High School Library Association convention on April 11-12, was read and tentative plans were made for representation at this meeting.

A request from Miss Dorothy Avery, county librarian was brought up. She asked if the club would make posters, celebrating National Library Week, March 16-22. Phyllis O'Boyle, Marilyn Brittingham, Barbara Reid, Jessie White and Faye Jones agreed to make these and they will be displayed in the downtown store windows during Library Week.

At the close of the business session Miss Boomer, the club advisor, gave some instructions in library circulation work after which the meeting was adjourned. The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 1, 1958.

Seniors Make $156.60; Theresa Sparks Wins Title

Hello, people. I am bringing you our school news this week and I hope that you will find the "goings-on" here at Smyrna interesting.

I am sure that all of the seniors who participated in our senior play have a feeling of relief now that three weeks of practicing, we presented our play, Too Many Women, last Friday. I believe that all of us were a little surprised at the fact that our play went along as smoothly as it did.

You certainly would have expected a "mixed-up" production had you seen some of our practice sessions. But, our play was a big success and we have heard many encouraging comments about it. The senior class would like to thank Mrs. Mildred Davis for her patience and her help in directing our play.

Also, we would like to thank the Hamilton Furniture Co. in Beaufort for the use of a sofa and two chairs.

Proceeds taken in at the door amounted to $106.50. We also collected a total of $50 from the clubs and classes which sponsored girls for the Miss Smyrna High Contest, so we made a grand total of $156.50 on our play.

We would like to say "congratulations" to Theresa Sparks because she was chosen, by the judges, to be Miss Smyrna High of 1958. The judges for this contest were Mrs. Earl Davis, Mrs. Clayton Fulcher Jr., and Mrs. Irma Hansen. We would like to thank Mrs. Anne Salter for her musical renditions throughout this contest.

The members of the Morehead City Choral Group were guests at our school Tuesday. It was certainly a pleasure to hear them sing, as they have a splendid glee club under the direction of Mr. Ralph Wade. We would like to welcome you back at any time.

A few weeks ago the students here at Smyrna could hear the buzzing of saws and maybe the call of "timber". The result of these noises was discovered later when we saw several of the tall pines, which were in front of our building, lying on the ground.

These pines were cut down because they were a danger to the lives of the children had they suddenly fallen on the campus. Since much sentiment was attached to the pines at Smyrna, young pines have been set out to replace the old ones.

At the last PTA meeting the majority of the members voted to help beautify our campus by planting azaleas.

Our high school students really hated to see Mrs. Mildred Davis leave. I'm sure that we all feel that we have lost a wonderful math teacher. Mr. H. T. Sanders, our former seventh grade teacher and basketball coach, has taken over Mrs. Davis' high school classes.

We are very glad to welcome Mrs. Grace Walence to our school faculty. She will teach the seventh grade. Mrs. Walence has taught in the Morehead City School and we have heard that she is a splendid teacher, so we feel very fortunate to have her join our faculty.

Ann Davis, who was chosen "Miss Poultry Princess of Carteret County", will go to Winston-Salem the 24th through the 28th of this month to participate in the final choosing of a state poultry princess. Ann has been kidded and "clucked" at, but we think it an honor to receive such a title. Ann has been very active in 4-H Club work, especially in the field of public speaking. We hope you will go all the way, Ann.

Say "hello" to Miss Senior. I'm sure that she will need no introduction because you already know her through reading her columns of Pine Cones.

Lenora Lawrence was born in Otway on March 6, 1940. Mr. and Mrs. Blondell Lawrence were the proud parents. Lenora stands a full 5'7" tall, weighs 133 pounds, has brown hair, and brown or gray eyes, depending on the color she happens to be wearing.

Some of Lenora's favorites are singer, Pat Boone; song, It's Too Soon to Know; and food, fried shrimp. Lenora's pet peeve is people who come to her house, park out front, blow the horn, and expect her to run out to see them. During her four years of high school, she has been an officer in various clubs and she has been a member of the FTA, FHA, 4-H, and Glee Clubs.

Lenora is a member of the annual staff and has been class photographer for three years. She was a cast member in the senior play. Besides all of these activities, Lenora has been a marshal for three years. Her plans for the future include college.

Suspends Licenses

The state highway safety division has suspended the licenses of three county drivers. They are Pasquale Marino and Jerry Lee Willis, Morehead City, for speeding and James E. Archie, Harkers Island, for improper use of driver's license.

Ann Davis, who was chosen "Miss Poultry Princess of Carteret County", will go to Winston-Salem the 24th through the 28th of this month to participate in the final choosing of a state poultry princess.
