27 Attend WSCS Meeting

The Harlowe Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the educational building the evening of March 6 with 27 members present.

Mrs. James Lupton gave the call to worship and the meditation on healing. She outlined what Americans owe to other nations in the field of medicine. Mrs. E. C. McLawhorn conducted the program on The March of Missions in Healing. She displayed a world map marked to show the areas where Methodists have medical missions.

Results of healing missions were shown on colored posters. Several members assisted Mrs. McLawhorn in presenting the program, after which a question and answer session was held.

During the business session it was voted to send a sacrificial offering to the district treasurer for certain special projects and a love offering to the annual meeting.

It was announced that the district meeting would be March 27 at Jacksonville and the sub-district meeting April 22 at Ocracoke.

Mrs. Cleo Taylor reported on the study courses and announced the last study on the Bible would be given by Mrs. Fred Boswell in four sessions beginning the Monday after Easter.
