The Eagle Eye is upon you!

By ROMELDA SHEPPARD

National FHA Week
Future Homemakers of MCHS are celebrating National FHA Week. Beginning with emphasis on service to the high school, Bonnie Fish, Barbara Nichols, Anne Herbert and Janice Lovick, conducting devotions over the intercom, brought messages on personal influence and good family relationship. Fifteen attractive Future Homemakers presented red roses to each high school teacher on Tuesday. Courtesy was their ware on Wednesday.

Saturday will be family day, when each member will do something special for or with her family. Sunday, the FHA girls will attend the 11 o'clock service at the Franklin Memorial Methodist Church.

The March meeting was held on Thursday. At the state rally to be held in Raleigh tomorrow, the Morehead City chapter of FHA will be represented by Sara Goodwin, Sandra Garner, Guylene Guthrie, and Kay Willis.

In preparation for the election of officers at the April meeting, duties of officers were discussed, and a list of members was given to each girl.

Working for the junior homemaker's degree are Sara Goodwin, Brenda Morton, Johnnie Doshier, Linda Lockhart, Dorothy Proud, Greta Rice, Doris Farmer, and
