Four Attend Student Council Congress; Plans Made for Dance

By JUDIE MOORE

Danny Willis, Sammy Merrill, Douglas Piner, and Miss Gladys Chadwick rose with the sun this morning to get an early start on their trip to the Eastern District Student Council Congress being held in Kinston.

Danny is president of our student body, Sammy and Douglas will go as vice-president and a member of the judicial branch, and Miss Chadwick will accompany them as an advisor of the Student Council.

Judie Moore

Danny has expressed his hopes that as delegates to the Congress, the group might learn more about the honor systems and honor societies of other schools, methods of promoting school spirit, and of course any new developments on Student Council procedures.

Students are already getting excited about the Student Council's latest plans. The group hopes to sponsor, with the assistance of all the high school clubs, a big dance on May 9. Though maybe other schools have had spring proms this is a very new undertaking for BHS.

The purpose of the affair will be to increase school spirit and there can't be a better way to do just that!

Everyone loves to dress up in his handsomest or her prettiest and dance 'til midnight under gay decorations to the soft music of a "live orchestra."

Since the regular Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y meetings for March had been cancelled in order that their members might hear one of our recent guest speakers, special called meetings were necessary.

The Hi-Y met briefly Wednesday and president, Alec Copeland, brought to the attention of the club that they had missed attending church as a group.

Danny Willis suggested that they attend the Ann Street Methodist Church Thursday night where a revival was being held. Everyone accepted this idea and fifteen of the group were present Thursday night looking so handsome in coats and ties.

Hearing of the boys plans, the Tri-Hi-Y voted at a called meeting at lunch hour Thursday to accompany the Hi-Y Thursday night. Many of the girls also volunteered their time to sell Easter Lillies on April 5.

Profits from the sale all go to crippled children.

March 16 through 22 was National Library Week and in accordance with this not only the high school but all the grammar school down to the second grades prepared innumerable colorful posters promoting the idea of reading more books.

Mrs. Grace Fodrie, librarian at BHS, was in charge of collecting all the posters, which were placed in the display windows of downtown stores.

Mrs. Fodrie stated that she'd like to express her appreciation to all the classes which helped and especially to Mrs. Dudley's and Mrs. Arrington's sixth grades who alone made eight posters.

This week's Miss Senior is Miss Eloise Dudley. Eloise also answers to quite a few nick names—among them Weegie and Deed. She was born on Oct. 3, 1939 to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dudley.

At 18, Eloise has brown hair, blue eyes and is now 5' 6" tall and weighs 106 pounds. Though she's hard to see when she stands sideways, Eloise can usually be perceived by just listening for her. As a matter of fact, Eloise's caption in this year's Mainstay will read, "She laughs like a chicken!" Eloise's coloring retains a bright red color 1/3 of the time 'cause it's as easy to make her blush as

H. D. Paul. Shrimp is "Weegie's" favorite dish as long as there's plenty of ketchup with it.

The smooth voice of Johnny Ma-this appeals most to her and "Maybe" rates as her favorite song. Her pet peeve is people who keep repeating themselves and she'd like most to have a '56 Ford—and maybe what goes in it!

Eloise works with Mrs. Fodrie in the grammar grade library so she's a member of the Lambda Chi. Her future plans are indefinite except to take a business course and maybe keep hoping for that Ford!

By method of secret ballot the FHA elected its new officers for the year '58-'59. It was announced Friday that the following girls were elected to the executive branch:

President, Lou Dudley; vice-president, Ginny Duncan, secretary, Vicky Taylor; treasurer, Claudia Taylor.

Elected reporter was Sharon Wilkinson; historian, Patsy Pake; parliamentarian, Kay Temple; song leader, Roberta West; and pianist, Judy Gillikin.

The FHA had their biggest social of the year when the girls of the organization honored their mothers at the annual mother-daughter banquet.

Guests and their young hostesses began arriving in the home ec department at 6:30 p.m. and by 7, thirty five mothers and an equal number of daughters were present when dinner was served.

As father time has just recently ushered in his second season of the year, the decorations committee of the banquet appropriately adorned the tables with fresh spring flowers. The theme of the bulletin boards, arranged by Sandy Whitehurst, was "Welcome Mothers, have a rest!"

As the banquet began Faye Pilkington, FHA president, welcomed the guests and Mrs. Ivey Chadwick, chapter mother, gave the response for the mothers. The invocation was said by Cynthia Dudley and a delicious supper, as only the home ec girls could prepare, was served.

The menu: baked ham, garden peas, baked Irish potatoes, red apple salad, coffee, iced tea, hot biscuits, candy, nuts, and peach cobbler.

Immediately after supper everyone proceeded to the auditorium where a cute, original program was presented as entertainment.

The devotional was given by Ginny Lewis and Lillie Herbert in which they compared life to various precious stones. Bernice Courtney and Betty Norman then sang Sweet Hour of Prayer.

A very impressive rose ceremony followed which showed the similarity between the growth of a rose and that of a young girl. Nancy Pittman presented the Home Ec degrees next.

The main attraction of the affair was of course the fashion in which the girls displayed the

More talent came next as Brenda Dyes sang Remember You're Mine, Cheryl Peterson sang Making Whoopee, Oleta Fulcher sang April Love and Lou Dudley and Sandra Whitehurst pantomimed a dance.

During Wednesday's assembly the girls again presented portions of the program for the high school, so our thanks go to Mrs. Jerry Beveridge!

BHS's newly organized baseball team, coached by Mr. Hugh Gordon and Mr. Charles Hassell, played its first exhibition game against Morehead Friday afternoon.

Coach Gordon said that though Morehead scored one more run than the Seadogs the main purpose of playing the game was to see which members of the team were able to play certain positions best. All our regular games have been rained out and now the boys are anxious to begin their official baseball careers!

1958 Heart Fund Climbs To Total of $2,057.14

Mrs. Frank Sample, Morehead City, treasurer for the Heart Fund, has reported a total of $2,057.14. Funds for the Heart campaign were collected throughout the county in February. The amount is almost three times the total collected in 1957.

Sale Postponed

The shrubbery sale, scheduled for tomorrow by the Wesleyan Guild of Ann Street Methodist Church, has been postponed until April, Mrs. Herbert Whitehurst reported Wednesday.

The first cast-iron bridge was built by two 18th Century British ironmasters. They were chiefly interested in proving the strength of their cast-iron wares.
