First Methodist Church Lists Holy Week Services

The senior young people began a retreat Friday at Atlantic Beach. The purpose of the retreat was to plan the program and activities for this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris chaperoned.

During Holy Week the following services will be held in the First Methodist Church, Morehead City: Prayer Meeting Service tomorrow at 7:30 in the usual place; Thursday evening a service of communion will be held from 7:30 to 8:30. On Friday from noon until 3 p.m. a Watch at the Cross service, planned by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be held.

The following ministers of the community will take part: the Rev. J. F. Herbert, presiding; the Rev. Ralph Fleming, pastor of Newport Methodist Church; the Rev. Noah Brown, pastor of Faith Free Will Baptist Church; the Rev. J. H. Bunn, D.D., pastor of First Baptist Church; the Rev. Albert G. Harris, pastor of First Presbyterian Church; the Rev. Sam S. Moore, pastor of Franklin Memorial Methodist Church; the Rev. Seldon Bullard pastor of First Free Will Baptist Church and the Rev. Alvis Daniel, pastor of Wildwood Presbyterian Church.

On Easter Sunday the pastor will preach at 11 o'clock. A baptismal service will be held for adult applicants for membership who have not been baptized. The adults applying for membership will then be received into the fellowship of the church. At 4 p.m. a service of christening for infants and small children will be held by the pastor. Parents are requested to call the church office if they wish their children christened. The pastor will preach at the evening service at 7:30.
