Clay Ash Trays are Made By Girl Scout Troop 148

The Girl Scout meeting of troop 148 was called to order at 3:50 Thursday at the recreation center by the president, Beth Russell. We bought colas with our dues. We decided not to go to camp because only five or six of the troop can go. We made clay ash trays. They will dry during the week and we will take them home next week. We played gossip and adjourned the meeting at 4:50. —Jan Jeffries, Manie Piner, Reporters

Mrs. A. B. Vick Hostess To Thursday Bridge Club

The Thursday evening bridge club was entertained by Mrs. A. B. Vick Sr. last week. Mrs. Vick used jobuquid and Japanese quince to decorate her home. Mrs. A. T. Baugh won high score, Mrs. S. A. Horton was second high and Mrs. Sam Gibbs of Beaufort won low. At the conclusion of play the hostess served a dessert course.

After you slice off the rind from a fresh pineapple, remove the eyes with a small sharp knife. Then cut the fruit into desired shapes.
