Two brief showers, Monday afternoon and Tuesday night, accounted for less than a quarter-inch of rain. They were too short to cause any appreciable drop in the temperature.

Beaufort Rescue Squad Warns About Dug-Outs

The Beaufort Rescue Squad has recommended that the "dug-outs" built by Marines on Radio Island be destroyed.

The recommendation came this week, following a harrowing experience Saturday when it was believed that some colored children were smothered when one of the dug-outs caved in.

The children believed caught in the cave-in were Louis and Amy Johnson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Johnson, Beaufort, and their playmates, Danny Oden, Dorothy Godette, Joie Elizabeth Godette and Charles Stevens Anderson.

According to members of the rescue squad, Mr. Johnson and the children went to the island and the children were warned to stay within a certain area.

Mr. Johnson missed the youngsters after a while and he looked wherever he thought they may have gone. Then he saw a boy on a bicycle who told him that he saw some children go into one of the dug-outs, and the dug-out had caved in.

Mr. Johnson went and checked, and according to the rescue squad, he saw tracks leading to the caved-in dug-out. Almost frantic at this point, he went to a service station on the causeway and called the Morehead City police department.

They, in turn, notified the sheriff's department. The sheriff, Hugh Salter, and deputies went to Radio Island, as did the Beaufort rescue squad, the Morehead City fire department pickup truck and Morehead City police.

Frenzied digging at the caved-in dugout had started when someone found the children in the fenced-off area where they were told not to go. They had crawled under the fence and were along a jetty watching some people skin dive.

Rescue squad members say that the dug-outs on the island are caves in the side of sand dunes with makeshift protection from wind and rain. They said Marines evidently dug them during the March maneuvers.

Now they are beginning to collapse and children who may wander into them to play could be caught under tons of sand.

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!

AGAIN AND AGAIN, industrial newcomers to the Southland tell us how pleased they are with their first manufacturing plant in the South. There are many reasons for this. But right up on top of the list is the fact that they've found the men and women in industry here to be willing, dependable workers—easily trained and eager to give a full day's work for a fair day's pay.

In times of lessened business activity everywhere, this willingness to work is more important than ever before, both for Southland industry and for its workers. It helps management keep production cost per unit down, so that the finished product can be priced to sell in today's highly competitive markets. And this, in turn, makes jobs for workers.

A good supply of good workers has always been one of the Southland's greatest drawing cards. It brings new, job-providing manufacturing plants to the South—and keeps them busy after they get here. Now in particular it benefits everyone in the Southland to "keep up the good work"—and keep it that way!

WE WANT YOUR FREIGHT IN '58!

To shippers and receivers of freight, the railroad that "Serves the South" offers the largest, most efficient, most modern plant and equipment in its 127-year history. As never before, we are eager to serve and geared to GO. Let our low-rate, all-weather volume transportation service help you do a better job for your shipping dollar.
