

Sound View Auxiliary Meets Friday Afternoon

The Sound View Go-Tell Auxiliary meeting was called to order Friday, April 18. The secretary called the roll and we answered with Bible verses. There were twenty members and one visitor present. The secretary read the minutes and took up dues, then we sang choruses.

Hettie Anne, Renee, Lennie and Annie Marie Taylor are going to have refreshments next time. We discussed a project, but couldn't decide upon anything. We decided to wait until the next meeting before deciding upon anything permanent.

For devotions Sylvia Taylor read John 1:1-4 and led us in sentence prayers. The program for April is Jesus, The Greatest Missionary of All and those taking part were Sylvia Taylor, Lennie Taylor, Brenda Taylor, Annie Marie Taylor, Lorine Henderson and Hettie Ann Taylor.

The program chairman assigned topics for the next program and the meeting adjourned. We then enjoyed refreshments.

Literary and Art Department Holds Annual Dinner Meeting

The Literary and Art Department of the Woman's Club held its annual dinner meeting at the Rex Restaurant Wednesday evening.

The tables were attractively decorated with yellow candles in crystal holders, white azaleas and yellow pansies and pink, yellow and white gladiolas. Favors of miniature umbrellas were presented.

The dinner consisted of roast beef with gravy, stuffed baked potato, string beans, french bread, coconut cake and coffee.

Sgt. Paul Bray, chairman of the centennial deficit committee, appeared before the group. He told them that the deficit is $3,000 and asked if the members would sell tickets on a color television set the committee is giving away.

Twelve department members took tickets to sell before the Monday deadline.

Mrs. Donald Nairne was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Charles Canfield was a guest.

Mrs. Skinner Chalk, chairman of the hostess committee, was in charge of the program, which was divided into three parts.

Mrs. Baker Morris named twenty-one fruits and vegetables and arranged them in a basket. The members were then given paper and pencils and asked to list as many as they could remember. Mrs. J. C. Taylor was the winner and her prize was an azalea bush.

Five groups were formed and each group received six unrelated objects. Skits were given, using all the objects and the winning group won boxes of cracker jacks.

As a finale to the program, five members, dressed in costumes of the twenties, danced the Charleston. They were Mrs. A. B. Roberts, Mrs. W. C. Carlton, Mrs. Darden Eare, Mrs. Bernard Leary and Mrs. J. W. Thompson.

To Wed in June
