

Marines Embark From State Port

State port, Morehead City, swarmed with Marine activity this week as the Second Battalion, Second Marines, began loading on two Navy ships headed for the Mediterranean Sea.

The USS Capricornus and USS Monrovia will take the Marines to relieve the First Battalion, Eighth Marines.

During its tour of duty as the Marine Corps detachment to the Northeast Atlantic and Mediterranean command, the battalion is expected to carry out a number of landing exercises in addition to making friendship calls at liberty ports all along Europe's southern coastline and in Asia Minor.

Cancer Fund Nears $700

Cancer funds approached the $700 mark yesterday. Exact total was $699.10, according to the crusade treasurer, Mrs. Frank Sample.

Money received since Tuesday's report was an additional $14.22 from Atlantic Beach and $19.80 from the Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church, North River.

Mrs. Sample said that many communities have not yet reported, and asked them to turn their money in to her as soon as possible. The crusade officially ended Wednesday.

Coin collectors are yet to be picked up and personal solicitation in several areas is yet to be completed.

Agent Foresees Increased Market For County Poultry

County agent R. M. Williams predicts that the poultry products inspection law will increase the market for poultry products grown in the county.

This law, which will go into effect Jan. 1, 1959, will require inspection of all poultry processing plants that sell poultry on an interstate basis.

Mr. Williams says that housewives will buy more poultry when they see the United States Department of Agriculture stamp, assuring them of wholesome products.

Three Win Awards at Newport FFA Banquet

C. S. Long, left, vocational agricultural teacher at Newport, congratulates the three FFA boys who won awards at the Father and Son banquet at the school lunchroom Wednesday night. They are, left to right, Tommy Howard, public speaking, Pat Corbett, chapter star farmer, and James Clark, farm mechanics.

JC's to Install New Officers

Ellis Harrell, Jaycee district vice-president from Kinston, will serve as installing officer Monday night when the Morehead City Jaycees install their new officers at a meeting at the Blue Ribbon Club.

New Jaycee officers are Jerry J. Willis, president; Floyd Chadwick, external vice-president; Bill Singleton, internal vice-president, and Donald Davis, treasurer.

Club awards will be presented to outstanding committees for their work during the past year.

At the Jaycee meeting Monday night, the club elected Billy Oglesby as sheriff. The sheriff keeps order in the meetings, collects fines and keeps things moving.

Hugh Porter, chairman of the teen-age road-e-o, said that May 17 was the day set for that event. The auto handling contest will be conducted at the section base, Camp Glenn.

All the Jaycees have chances on a new Cadillac which they are giving in exchange for contributions to the state Jaycee organization.

Three boys won Future Farmer awards at the Newport father and son banquet Tuesday night at the school lunchroom. Pat Corbett was named chapter star farmer. James Clark showed the most improvement in his shop work during the year and won the farm mechanics award.

Tommy Howard, who acted as toastmaster for the banquet, won the public speaking award. Tommy won a three-county FFA public speaking contest this year.

The Newport FFA chapter participated in three federation contests this year at Vanceboro, New Bern and rural Craven County.

Tommy Howard, Pat Corbett, Allen Gray, Woody Barnes, Leonard Jarman and Ronnie Edwards won first place in the ritual and parliamentary contest at Vanceboro.

The public speaking contest at New Bern was won by Tommy Howard who brought a banner back for the chapter.

In the livestock judging contest at farms around Craven County, the chapter placed third. Leonard Jarman, an alternate on the dairy team, won individual honors in the contest. He got 190 of a possible 200 points.

Ten boys received their chapter farmer degrees at the banquet. They were Jimmy Skinner, Edward Corbett, Terry Garner, Louis Kelly, Leonard Jarman, Clayton Garner, Clarence Murdoch, Avon D. Davis, Sherrill Garner and Eric Gray.

Guest speaker for the banquet was H. L. Joslyn, county superintendent of schools.

Mr. Joslyn, Walter D. Roberts, Moses C. Howard and Cornell M. Garner received honorary chapter farmer degrees as friends and promoters of the Newport FFA.

Youngster is Injured When He Runs into Truck

Luther E. Toms, 5, of Morehead City was injured at 4:30 p.m. Monday when he drove his tricycle into a truck. The accident occurred near his home at 1004 Bridges St. Luther was carried to the hospital by his mother for treatment of scratches and bruises.

Police Lt. Joe Smith reports that Oscar R. McCausley of Stella was driving a 1953 Chevrolet truck when Luther's tricycle hit his left rear fender, doing about $15 damage to the truck. There were no charges filed.

Chimney Fire

Soot in the chimney of a fireplace caught fire in the Henry White home, Morehead City, at 8:50 p.m. Tuesday. There was no damage except for smoke. Firemen from both Morehead City stations went to the fire.

Seniors to Hear Dr. L. A. Taylor

The baccalaureate service for the class of 1958, Morehead City High School, will be held Sunday evening, May 25, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium.

The sermon will be delivered by Dr. L. A. Taylor, executive secretary of Wilmington Presbytery. Dr. Taylor, a native of Montgomery County, was graduated from Davidson College and Presbyterian Seminary of Louisville, Ky.

He also studied at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was later bestowed upon him by his alma mater, Davidson College.

Pastorates held by Dr. Taylor include churches in Louisville, Little Rock, Fulton, Mo.; and Newport News, Va.

He now makes his home in Wilmington.

Commencement exercises will be held Friday night, May 30, at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. The program, a student-participation type, will feature members of the graduating class.

Court

(Continued from Page 1)

According to the judgment, the loan is to pay Miss Fulcher $3,000 within 60 days and the balance not later than July 1, 1960, without interest. The loan has no insurance to meet the court order.

Being heard by Judge Parker yesterday afternoon was a dispute between Commercial National Bank and Atlantic Discount Corp., as to which firm is entitled to the Buick registered in the name of H. Earle Mobley. Mobley, a former Buick dealer in Morehead City, was recently convicted of embezzlement.

Both the bank and the discount firm suffered financial loss as the result of financing cars sold by Mobley.

Seashore Transportation Co. was awarded $1,100 in the suit it filed against Roper Van Horn, administrator of the estate of Edward John Wargo. The suit was the outgrowth of a collision Aug. 24, 1954 between a Seashore bus and a car belonging to Wargo. Cross actions and counter claims against the bus company were dismissed. The case was settled by compromise.

In the case of Wrenn-Wilson Construction Co. vs. W. H. Lancaster and wife, Thelma J. Lancaster, the Lancasters were given until Sept. 1, 1958 to pay $1,850 in settlement, plus costs.

Harry E. Gaskill Jr., who filed suit against his wife, Shirley Ann Gaskill, won rights to visit his child, Harry E. Gaskill III. Gaskill and his wife are separated. The judgment stipulates that if the mother says the child is sick and cannot visit with the father, the father has a right to call a doctor to determine whether such is the case.

Russell Eldridge Willis was awarded $800 in a case arising out of an auto collision July 3, 1955. The defendants, Nathaniel L. A. and Hattie Lane Fulcher, were ordered to pay the damages.

Settled by compromise was the case of R. F. Trant Distributing Corp. vs. W. C. Smith trading as the William C. Smith Appliance Co.

The Trant firm was given possession of a kitchen range, space heater, phonograph-radio combination and granted $500 plus interest from May 1, 1958. Smith was ordered to pay costs of the action.

Court was expected to adjourn yesterday afternoon.

Club Sees Movie

Beaufort Rotarians saw a movie on redwood forestry at their meeting Tuesday night at the Scout building. The movie was shown by William S. Davis, guest of program chairman C. W. Stampet.

Pet Corner

Would like to find good home for a 6-month-old male dog, part show and part spitz. Also have a mother cat and five kittens that need a home. Kittens are ready to leave the mother. Phone 6-4771 after 6 p.m.

Mrs. Eddie Masotti who had a 10-week-old puppy she wanted to give away got excellent response, she said, after running her notice in the Pet Corner last week. A home has been found for the dog and calls for him kept coming after he had been placed.

Negro News

Beaufort — Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chadwick Jr., Bliscoe, spent the weekend with Mr. Chadwick's parents at 514 Pollock St.

Morehead City Hospital Admitted: Sunday, Miss Vida Mae Taylor, Beaufort; Monday, Mrs. Lucille Williams, Beaufort; Tuesday, Mr. Jerry Godette, Havelock.

Discharged: Monday, Mrs. Lina Wigfall, Beaufort; Miss Laverne Johnson, Havelock; Wednesday, Mrs. Lucille Williams, Beaufort.

Mrs. Lillian Stanley was hostess to the Young Wives Club at her home on Pine Street, Beaufort, recently. After a brief business session, in which we made plans for our bazaar, we were served chicken salad on lettuce, potato chips, crackers and ginger ale.

Our bazaar will be held May 10 at the Masonic hall. We are going to have aprons, clothespins bags, skirts, dresser sets, and dish towels on sale. Refreshments will also be sold.

Any young wives who would like to join our club are welcome to send their name to Mrs. Sandra Tootle, 512 Craven St., Beaufort.

Queen of the South, chapter 209, Order of Eastern Star, will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Masonic hall, announces the worthy matron, Mrs. Marjorie Stiles.

The Rev. C. C. Simmons will preach at 11 a.m. Sunday at the Christian Star Church. At 3 p.m. Obrey Hester will be ordained a deacon. The Rev. Mr. Simmons will conduct a revival each night at 7:30, Monday through Friday, next week.

The Willing Workers of the Christian Star Church had teenagers as their guests Monday night at the fellowship hall. A Bible quiz was given for the program and a game was played.

Rufus Hester Jr. won the guest prize. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Dollar Days Sale Begins Yesterday In Beaufort Stores

Dollar Days began in Beaufort yesterday. The big sale, sponsored by the Beaufort Chamber of Commerce, will end tomorrow. Chamber president Ronald Earl Mason says, "Your dollar talks louder during Dollar Days. Come to town and get more for the more for the same amount of money."

Chamber secretary Mrs. Jack Russell says it is no problem to tell spring is here. "We are having a big spring sale, for one, and the other sure sign is the flood of letters I have received in the past few days about wild ponies."

Duke University is making plans for its summer school at Pivers Island. Many students will be stopping by the chamber office, looking for rooms and apartments. Anyone interested in renting to the students can list their vacancies at the chamber office.

Cottage Burns

The summer cottage of Floyd Gray Jr., Kinston, on Highway 24 west of Morehead City, burned Sunday at 1:45 a.m. By the time the fire was discovered, the cottage was beyond saving. Newport firemen answered the alarm.

I am a candidate for Coroner of Carteret County, Primary May 31st, 1958. Your vote will be appreciated.

Signed
W. David Munden

time to PAINT!

50,000 Units of DAVIS OF BALTIMORE PAINT Sold in Carteret County in 1957 by HUNTLEY'S

"Carteret County's Largest Paint Center"

NOW AVAILABLE TO YOU

150 colors in 25 different finishes

DAVIS OF BALTIMORE

Quick Drying Alkyd for inside and out

Tough-Durable Elastic

PRIM SELF SEALING FLAT

Regular Price — Gal. $3.50

May Price Gal. $3.15

SATIN TONE LATEX

Regular Price — Gal. $4.60

May Price Gal. $4.14

FLOOR AND DECK ENAMEL

Regular Price — Gal. $4.75

May Price Gal. $4.27

BOUNTY OUTSIDE WHITE

Regular Price — Gal. $4.50

May Price Gal. $4.05

PRIM ALKYD FLAT

Regular Price — Gal. $4.05

May Price Gal. $3.65

MULTI-TINT FLAT WALL

Regular Price — Gal. $3.90

May Price Gal. $3.51

There Are Satisfied Davis of Baltimore Users in Every Carteret County Community

HUNTLEY'S

Phone 2-4871

Beaufort, N. C.

scientific research does it again!

Colors

- LONGER LASTING BEAUTY PVA base gives longest color retention yet
- FAST DRYING in minutes, not hours
- EASY TO USE with or without roller or brush
- NEEDS NO PRIMING Self sealing, even on dry wall or hot plaster