Good News About 4-H

By Harry Venters, 4-H Advisor

I hope that all 4-H'ers have been working on their Health Improvement record books. These are to be turned over to Mrs. Floy Garner and me at the next club meetings. They will be judged and used as a basis for selecting the Junior and Senior Health Kings and Queens.

The third and final 4-H Electric Workshop for this year has been held. We were all pleased with the amount of interest shown by 4-H'ers attending these workshops. I am sure that you received a great deal of information about electricity and its uses that will help you with your project and also in many other ways.

Details for a trip to Wilmington are being worked on by Carolina Power and Light Co. As soon as plans are made, those eligible to attend will be notified.

I want to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Norris Edge of Carolina Power and Light Co. and Mr. Bernie Morton of Carteret-Craven Electric Membership Corp., for their splendid cooperation. I am sure that all of the 4-H'ers that attended these workshops appreciate your efforts and will benefit from them.

I hope that a lot of 4-H'ers are working in their gardens these fine afternoons after school. I also hope that your garden is further along than mine is. I just took two days

"vacation" to get my garden in shape and to do some more planting. Things were about to get away from me.

You will enjoy your garden over a much longer period of time if you will plant some vegetables at two or three week intervals. Take corn for example. If you will plant two or three times with a week or two between plantings, you will have garden fresh corn-on-the-cob over a longer period of time. The same holds true for many other vegetables.

While working in my garden, I noticed that many summer weeds, as well as "wire grass" and nut grass, are beginning to grow. It will be to your advantage to control these pests from the beginning and not let them get too much of a start.

A fairly new insecticide, "Malathion", shows great promise for the home gardener. It is very effective on a large number of insect pests and is safe to use. It can be applied as a spray or dust.

Meeting Cancelled

The meeting of the Migrant Ministry committee, scheduled for 4:30 this afternoon in the N. F. Eure educational building, Beaufort, has been cancelled. A meeting will be called at a later date, announced the Rev. Alvis Daniel, chairman of the committee.

Cleaning Erasers Becomes Big-Time Job at College

Gainesville, Fla. (AP)—F. B. Plemmons is a specialist in a full-time job that used to be allotted to bad boys in grammar schools. He's a blackboard eraser cleaner.

It's not exactly a light job for the 61-year-old employee of the University of Florida. Each school day night from 5:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. he collects dirty erasers from 10 big classroom buildings and replaces them with clean ones. He cleans about 1,400 a night in his supply room where he has a special brush-and-air gadget that draws the chalk dust out.

Suspends License

The state highway safety division has suspended the driver's license of Ralph N. Hardin of Beaufort. He was convicted in Brunswick, Ga., of driving drunk.

Joe Taylor Gets 30-Day Sentence

Joe Taylor, Negro, got 30 days in jail for assaulting his wife. The sentence was handed down in Morehead City recorder's court Monday by Judge Herbert Phillips.

John Johnson, North River, was found guilty of driving without a license and driving a vehicle with an improper muffler. He got a fine of $40 plus court costs. The judge told him $25 of the fine would be remitted if he presented a valid license to the court within two weeks.

Another driver, J. E. Larue, was fined $25 and court costs for driving without a license. The $25 fine will be remitted if he presents a valid license to the court within two weeks.

J. M. Carter got a $2 fine for an overtime parking ticket he failed to pay last July. He also paid one-third court costs.

Raymond Howell forfeited a $25 cash bond rather than appear to face charges of speeding and driving on the wrong side of the road.

Two cases were continued. Defendants were James Coleman and D. J. Graham.

Gene Kelly, Natalie Wood Team in 'Morningstar'

Marjorie Morningstar, starring Gene Kelly and Natalie Wood, will play all next week at the Morehead Theatre.

For a month the Warner Brothers' Marjorie Morningstar company transplanted itself from the sound stages of Hollywood to the famous Adirondacks resort of Scaron Manor to film the Herman Wouk best selling novel.

The beautiful mountain resort was chosen because of its immediate identification with the fictional South Wind, the scene of Marjorie's early romantic adventures as described in the novel.

Another headliner will be at the City Theatre during most of the week. The Sheepman will run Sunday through Thursday.

Jason Sweet, central figure of The Sheepman, portrayed by Glenn Ford, is no ordinary Western hero. When he comes to the town of Powder Valley, determined to bring his sheep into the cow country, his tongue-in-cheek sallies have the town toughs guessing as to what manner of man he could be. But not for long.

He starts out by picking a fight with and thrashing Mickey Shaughnessy, the town's biggest and toughest character. He proves himself an almost unbelievably fast shot in a remarkable piece of shooting.

He begins his romance with Shirley MacLaine with a comic flirtation. He outmaneuvers the plot of Leslie Nielsen, shady cattle raiser, to get rid of him, and, finally, in one of the most suspenseful three-men-against-one gun draws devised for a screen play, he once and for all proves his right to bring sheep into cattle country. But his sense of humor never fails him.

A double feature will play Friday and Saturday at the City. George

Montgomery will star in Black Patch and Jerry Lewis will have top billing in The Delicate Delinquent.

Black Patch deals with a returned prisoner of war who wears a patch to cover the loss of his eye. He drifts to a frontier town and is made marshal.

The tentacles of his past however soon present themselves in the person of his former love and a killer friend, and a story of passion and violence is unfurled.
