Rosary-Altar Society Hears Projects Reports

Mrs. Vic Bellamah, presiding at the April meeting of the Rosary-Altar Society at St. Egbert's School heard reports of the month's projects and directed plans for their communion breakfast and a teenage party.

Mrs. Sam Hatcher, social chairman, Mrs. Bellamah, Mrs. Bascom Williams, and Mrs. Ernest Mais were designated to serve a special breakfast on Sunday, May 4, in honor of the first communicants and their families.

Mrs. Ralph Gray and Mrs. Gerald Wade will be hostesses for the next teenage party, May 10. Mrs. Walter Patrick and Mrs. John Favone announced the success of the April teenage party, of which they were in charge.

Mrs. Gerald Wade reported that a number of parishioners and their families enjoyed the last covered dish supper. Others who helped her decorate and prepare for the supper included Mrs. Williams, Mrs. William Fahy, Mrs. John Zittere, Mrs. T. C. Hyman, and Mrs. Elmer Veitch.

To help raise funds for the society, Mrs. Walter Patrick held a modern methods party on April 9 and donated profits from the products sold.

Mrs. Joseph Drewyer provided refreshments.

Student Council Elections

The board of elections composed of students from the junior and senior high met Tuesday, May 6, with Mr. T. L. Lee to select the candidates for the Student Council offices. The candidates elected will serve for the school year beginning September 1958, ending May 1959. Monday, May 12, is the day set aside for elections.

The election will follow these lines. From the two candidates for the office of president, Walter Morris and Charles Lynch, students will elect one to serve as president. The other candidate automatically becomes vice-president. Students running for the office of secretary are Jennie Lou Smithwick, present Student Council secretary, and Joyce Styron; running for treasurer are Suzanne Beck and John Phillips.

This election is run by members of the present Student Council, and all votes are by secret ballot.

Intensive campaigns are in progress so that the constituents will be appraised of the merits of each candidate when they go to the polls on Monday.

Picnic Planned

May 14 juniors and seniors alike will gather on the beach at Fort Macon swimming area for the annual junior-senior picnic. This year's picnic is under the direction of Mrs. E. L. Fauette.

Before all plans can be completed, the senior boys and girls must turn in $1.50, each one's share of the expense. Many have paid their money already, but others have this yet to do. Get on the ball, seniors, and get your money in by Monday.

The picnic will last from 3:30 until 6. There will be no swimming. The style of dress will be shorts and bermudas.

So May 14, pile into a car and join your classmates at Fort Macon Beach. The only item you will need to bring is yourself—see you there?

1958 Sandfiddler

Annual plans are progressing full speed ahead. Under the direction of Sally Morris, editor-in-chief, the annual staff is working exhaustively on the 1958 Sandfiddler.

Mr. J. B. Edwards of Winston-Salem, representative from the Hunter Publishing Company, met with members of the annual staff the afternoon of May 2. The annual layout was completed at that time.

Yesterday, pictures for the annual were made.

Merit Scholarship Test

Thirty-three students of the Morehead City High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test on April 29. The test was administered in the library of the senior high by Mr. Ralph T. Wade.

Merit scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies, and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself. They are available to any junior or senior in high school. An estimated $5 million in scholarships and other awards are available this year in the national competition now beginning in its fourth year.

Newport Play Is Money-Maker

Publicity chairman Nathan Garner predicts that the play, co-sponsored by the Newport Rotary Club and Fire Department will net about $250 for the two organizations. The play was presented two weeks ago but final figures are not yet available.

At the Monday night meeting of the Rotary Club at the school lunchroom the Rotarians turned in their ticket sales money and some of the money made from advertising on the programs.

Three visitors attended the meeting. They were H. L. Joslyn and Buck Matthews Jr., Morehead City, and Willis Marshall, New Bern.

Closing Date Extended

Applications for substitute clerk and substitute carrier at Morehead City postoffice will be accepted until May 28. Closing date was formerly May 7. Further information may be obtained from Harold Webb, postmaster.

Marine Gets Fine After Wrecking Car

Joseph S. McDonough, Cherry Point Marine, was fined $100 plus court costs in county recorder's court yesterday. Judge Lambert Morris found him guilty of driving drunk.

Highway patrolman J. W. Sykes testified that McDonough had driven a 1952 Oldsmobile off the right side of US 70 about one mile east of Newport. He said that the car went into a drainage ditch and followed the ditch for about 150 feet before stopping.

There was very little damage to the car and McDonough was not injured.
