Chalk Dust

More Officers are Elected; Mrs. Eure Speaks at Banquet

By BUNNY MOORE

In case you are wondering who is writing this week's Chalk Dust, let me introduce myself. My name is Bunny Moore and I am a junior at BHS.

It will be my job to bring you all the school news next year and I hope I can keep you well informed. Well, that's enough about me—on with the news.

On Tuesday, May 13, the Beta Club had a special called meeting during which new officers for the coming year were elected.

Allen Aulry was elected president; Kit Jones, vice-president; Billie Jean Skarren, secretary; Helmut Treasham, treasurer; and Linda Salter, business manager. This is a fine slate of officers and I know many of the goals of the club will be reached through these.

The Hi-Y met Wednesday for the purpose of electing new officers. They are as follows:

President, Dallas Willis; vice-president, Kit Jones; secretary, James Lewis; treasurer, Frank Potter, and chaplain, Raymond Laughton.

The Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y attended their annual banquet at the Rex Restaurant on Tuesday night. Beginning at 6:30 p.m. the banquet lasted until about 9.

The menus, ordered by the group, included everything from the traditional spaghetti and pizza to shrimp and deviled crabs.

As is the custom, gifts were given to each of the senior girls in the Tri-Hi-Y by the younger members. Everyone was delighted with the presents, which consisted of all sorts of jewelry.

Mrs. Darden Eure of Morehead City was the guest speaker of the evening. Her message on what should be the goals of today's teenagers, certainly inspired us.

It means a lot to young people, especially us, to know that adults such as Mrs. Eure are as concerned with our future as she is. A good time was had by all.

The names of those students who will serve as marshals during the graduation ceremonies have been announced.

Jackie Wheatly, who has the highest average in the junior class, will be chief marshal. From the junior class will be Frank Potter and Linda Salter.

From the sophomore class will be Jo Ann Allen and George Huntley and from the freshman class will be Pud Hassell and Vicki Taylor.

The Glee Club will give its final performance of this year when they join the seniors in singing for baccalaureate service on Sunday, May 25. The Rev. John Cline will be the speaker.

Friday night, the senior class gave their annual senior play, which was a smash hit. Everyone enjoyed the play and thought that it was one of the best in years.

This week only one senior remains to be interviewed. Her name is Miss Judith Meade Moore, your Chalk Dust reporter for this year.

Judie became the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Moore on Aug. 5, 1940. Her hair is brown and her eyes are hazel. She stands 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 115 pounds.

Judie's favorite artists are Doris Day and Roger Williams—she does love to hear that man play! Her pet peeve is the winter time when she has to wear shoes. Her ambi-
