

Campbell Choir to Sing Here

The Campbell College touring choir will present two concerts in this area Sunday. It will appear at 11 a.m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church, Beaufort, and at 8 p.m. Sunday in the First Baptist Church, Morehead City.

May 14—Miss Maggie Pigott of Gloucester arrived last Tuesday to spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chadwick.

Mrs. Lucille Gillikin of Marshallberg and Mrs. Hilda Gillikin were visitors with Mrs. Floyd Chadwick Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Wilson and children of Cherry Point were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Willis Sunday.

Mr. Murry Lynch returned Tuesday from the Veteran Hospital in Fayetteville.

Charles Horton, head of the music department at Campbell College, directs the Campbell singers. Mr. Horton is a native of Zebulon. He graduated from Wake Forest College with a bachelor's in music and received his master's of music degree from Westminster Choir College, Princeton, N. J. His graduate work was done at Union Theological Seminary in New York City.

Mr. Horton has served as minister of music in several large churches in the South. During summers, he has worked as choral director for Kermit Hunter's outdoor drama Unto These Hills at Cherokee and also as assistant director for the Gatlinburg, Tennessee outdoor drama, Chucky Jack. He is director of the Campbell Opera Workshop, which presents three opera productions each year in cooperation with the Drama Department.

Well-Rounded Migrant Ministry Program Needs Cash, Varied Supplies

Civic and church organizations have been invited to help in the county's ministry to the migrants. Twelve hundred migrant farm laborers will be in Carteret this summer.

The program of bringing recreation and church services to the migrants is sponsored by the County Ministers Association in cooperation with the North Carolina Council of Churches. Approximately $650 in cash is needed to finance the program, as well as other items such as clothing and games.

A list of the needs appears below:

Money—To provide accommodations for the migrant minister, the Rev. Oree Broomfield of Georgia.

To provide Bibles and other religious literature for the migrants.

To provide other needed equipment. Through this they will receive Bible teaching, counselling, wholesome recreation, and the preaching of the gospel.

Send contributions to the Rev. John Cline, Treasurer, Beaufort, N. C.

Supplies—Health, to provide for the body. First aid kits: band-aids, merthiolate, aspirin, etc.

Health kits: towel, washcloth, soap, toothbrush, paste, comb, nail file, etc.

Sewing kits: yard goods, thread, needles, pins, scissors, tape (in cigar box).

Clothing: needed for the entire family, especially babies and small children.

Supplies—Play, to provide equipment for the occupation and growth of mind and body.

Children: educational blocks, tea sets, rubber dolls, sand pails, shovels, color books and crayons, jack stones, games, and story books.

Youth and adults: softball and baseball equipment, boxing gloves, volleyballs, basketballs, croquet sets, horseshoes, badminton sets, checkerboards, jigsaw puzzles, table games, wholesome magazines and comic books.

Take supplies to Mrs. Homer Lewis (9-2 p.m.) Ann Street Methodist Church, Beaufort.

Services—to provide fellowship and guidance for the mind, body and soul. We need volunteers from civic and religious organizations or individuals who will help in Sunday School, Bible school, worship services, and recreation.

For the scheduling of these services please contact (between 1 and 5 p.m.): Mrs. Russell Klemm, Phone number 2-8496, 1520 Ann St., Beaufort, N. C.

Sunday has been recommended to all churches as Migrant Sunday; and the churches are asked to receive a special offering for this ministry on that day.
