Two Injured In Island Wreck

Two Harkers Island residents were admitted to the Morehead City Hospital yesterday afternoon after the car in which they were riding turned over on the Harkers Island Road across from the former site of Leo's Place.

Injured were Mrs. Velma Guthrie and Orville Gray Guthrie.

Others in the car who were given emergency treatment at the hospital and discharged were Tuck Guthrie, who was driving, Mrs. Mavis Dixon, and Mrs. Orville Gray Guthrie, and her little girl.

The accident happened shortly after noon. The car, a Chrysler, was owned by Leslie Aschen. It skidded off the wet highway and turned over on its top in a ditch.

The car was headed toward highway 70. The driver was taking his sister, Mrs. Mavis Dixon, to a hospital for treatment at the time the accident occurred.

Patrolman J. W. Sykes investigated.

ble before. He talked to them a while and they left.

"I have tried to talk to the parents of some of these boys and the parents of other children in the community. It seems that the parents of the worst offenders think their boys are staying out of trouble. The other folks in the community are afraid of the boys. We have to park our cars outside and we never know when we will wake up with tires slashed or windows broken."

"Something should be done to give these boys a constructive outlet for all that surplus energy. Maybe the town could help us form a club or something like that for these children out here." Mr. Edwards concluded.

More farm construction—with better homes for farm families, better shelter for livestock and improved storage facilities for machinery and grain—that's the prospect in coming years, says I. M. Robbins, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration.

Recently, as an anti-recession measure, his agency expanded its farm housing loan program to the fullest extent possible under existing laws set up by Congress. Mr. Robbins reports that he already has received many inquiries from interested people in this area.

To be eligible now, an applicant must own a farm that is in agricultural production and must plan to produce at least $400 worth of commodities for sale and home use, based on 1944 prices. Many part-time farmers who previously were ineligible can qualify for loans under the expanded program.

Mr. Robbins said that one reason for renewed interest in farm construction appears to be that many farm home and service buildings may have been built during the same period, and now, because of weather and age, need general repair. In some cases, new construction might be more economical in the long run.

In addition to financing major construction, the loan funds can help a farm owner repair and update buildings.

For example, he may wish to add a bathroom including a waste disposal system, modernize the kitchen, add an extra bedroom, improve the heating, insulation and electric wiring, or improve his water supply.

State Fares Better than US In Recession

Raleigh — North Carolina has been hit only about half as hard by the economic recession as the nation as a whole, state labor commissioner Frank Crane said today.

"Compared with the employment situation throughout the United States, North Carolina's position remains relatively good in spite of our decline in factory employment during the last seven months," Commissioner Crane stated.

"Nonagricultural employment dropped 2,038,000, or nearly 3.9 per cent, throughout the nation between April 1957 and April 1958.

"Our corresponding decline in total non-farm employment in North Carolina amounts to only 2.1 per cent, or just a little over half as high a percentage as has taken place in the entire nation.

"Factory employment throughout the United States dropped 1,727,000, or 10.2 per cent, during the last 12 months," Mr. Crane continued. "The decrease in factory employment in North Carolina during the same period was only four per cent, or less than half as severe a decline as has occurred throughout the Nation."

K. W. Wright Potato Barn Burns to Ground

A large sweet potato barn on the K. W. Wright farm burned early yesterday morning. Beaufort firemen found flames going through the roof of the building when they arrived at about 2 a.m. The barn is on highway 101 two miles north of Beaufort. A neighbor reported the blaze to the Wrights.

Firemen stayed at the barn until 5 a.m. They were unable to save any of the building or the potatoes. It rained the whole time the firemen were on the job. Firemen could not tell how or where the fire started.

Virginian Lands Blue Marlin

SPA to Discuss Budget Matters at High Point

Raleigh — The North Carolina under way at 1:30 p.m.

State Ports Authority will meet in High Point Tuesday, June 3, to discuss budget matters for presentation to the next General Assembly.

The meeting, which will be open to the public, will be held in the Sheraton Hotel.

It marks the first time the new Ports Authority has met for a business session outside of Raleigh, Wilmington or Morehead City. In announcing the High Point meeting, John M. Reeves of Pinehurst, chairman of the authority, said his group intends to hold regular sessions in various cities around the State "in order that we may get to know the particular problems as applicable to the Ports Authority in each area and each area, in turn, can become acquainted with our board and port operations."

Following a luncheon at noon to be given by the executive committee of the High Point Chamber of Commerce in the String and Spinter Club, a public meeting will be held in the Sheraton Room of the hotel. That session will get

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS

Do you live in a good and progressive town?

Has our town progressed in recent years?

Are you interested in our port?

Would you prefer to have a local man in the State Senate (or one from up the state)?

Wilmington WILL have a State Senator.

Morehead SHOULD have a State Senator.

This election is vital to the growth of our port.
