Miss Annette Braithwaite Speaks Vows with N. C. Hardee Saturday

Miss Annette Braithwaite, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Braithwaite of Mansfield Park, became the bride of Norman Carl Hardee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hardee Sr. of Greenville, in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

The Rev. E. Guthrie Brown, rector, performed the ceremony at three o'clock. The church was decorated with pink and white flowers and greenery. Mrs. Theodore Phillips, organist, and Mrs. Josiah Bailey, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of white imported Swiss organza over taffeta. The dress was fashioned with a bateau neckline, a flowing pink sash and a bouffant skirt embroidered in pink. She wore a picture hat and carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers. Miss Marguerite Edwards of Morehead City was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a street length pink dress with matching hat and carried a fan of pink and white frenched carnations.

Mr. Hugh Hardee was best man for his son. Ushers were Mr. Pat Sawyer and Mr. Preston Fields, both of Greenville.

A reception was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony. Miss Ann Ward Williams presided at the guest book and Mrs. Elwood Lewis, Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mrs. Arthur Lewis and Mrs. James Macy assisted in serving.

The mother of the bride wore an apple green dress with a flowered hat and a corsage of yellow orchids. The groom's mother wore a ivory lace dress with matching accessories and a lavender orchid corsage.

Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Greenville.
