Speaks Vows Tuesday

Mrs. Ralph Johnson Gillikin

Miss Betty Louise Gillikin became the bride of Ralph Johnson Gillikin in a double ring ceremony Tuesday evening at eight o'clock at the Williston Methodist Church.

The Rev. D. M. Tyson, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Floor baskets of white gladiolus were placed on either side of the altar and an arrangement of orange blossoms was placed on the piano. The altar rail was entwined with ivy.

Mrs. Rosa Murphy of Davis provided nuptial music. Wedding selections included The Sweetest Story Ever Told and Always.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Elmer Gillikin. She wore a ballerina length gown of lace and tulle over taffeta.

The lace bodice featured a high neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The bouffant skirt featured tiny lace and tulle ruffles over a taffeta underskirt.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of lace embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers.

Miss Cynthia Sue Gillikin, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a mint green ballerina length gown. The gown featured a strapless bodice and a bouffant skirt of nylon net over taffeta, highlighted with panels of ruffles.

Miss June Carolyn Gillikin, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pale yellow gown identical to that of the honor attendant.

Both attendants carried nosegays of pink carnations.

Mrs. Tommy Eure Hostess To Bridge Club Friday

Mrs. Tommy Eure entertained the Thursday evening bridge club at her home on Friday night last week. Guests were Mrs. Tommy Bowen, Mrs. Billy Downum and Mrs. N. F. Eure.

Mrs. Eure used roses and pomegranate to decorate her home.

Prior to bridge, a dessert of French glaze strawberry pie with coffee was served. During play, the hostess served lemonade, potato chips, candy and salted nuts.

High score was won by Mrs. Sammy Piner. Her prize was a tea pitcher. Second high, a milk pitcher, was won by Mrs. Bowen.
