Dr. A. E. H. King Gives Sewing Machine to School

By FANNIE LEE MAY

The principal and faculty considered that the homemaker department of the W. S. King High School, Morehead City, was weak and that the greatest weakness was a need of modern sewing machines.

The PTA, which has always supported any program to facilitate learning at the W. S. King High School, took as its goal the sewing machine project. The project was six sewing machines, one of the six machines was to be the swing needle machine.

Each Singer cost $117.25, the Swing Needle Singer cost $197.25. The PTA was able to raise enough money to purchase five machines, but fell short of the sixth machine; however, we felt that the PTA had done a wonderful job due to a scarcity of money this fall. Mr. McLendon, our principal, decided that he would do something about the sixth machine, so he wrote Prof. W. S. King's son, Dr. A. E. H. King, DDS, of Chicago, Ill., who is an outstanding dentist in the Windy City.

Dr. King readily responded and sent a check of $197.25 to pay for the swing needle machine. This donation by Dr. and Mrs. King achieves our goal in the homemaker department.

We, the students of W. S. King High School, would like the public to know that we appreciate what Dr. King has done for us and we believe that the community should be equally grateful for what he has done to help us meet certain requirements for accreditation.

The annual commencement program was held at the W. S. King High School Wednesday at 8 p.m. Twenty-five seniors were awarded diplomas. They were Peggy Brewington, valedictorian; Mildred Chadwick, Charles Collins, Anthony Daugherty, honor student; Georgia Dudley.

Macy Hamm, Rufus Hester, honor student; James Hodge, Bradford Howard, Fannie May, salutatorian; Annie Midgette.

Dorothy Moore, Horace Moore, Joyce Moore, James Parnley, Emma Pickett, Adrick Sharpe.

John Stiles, Claudette Sutton, Alice Tootle, Doris Tootle, Pauline Tootle, Isaac Williams, Ralph Wilson.

The theme of the program was Youth's Hope for Tomorrow. Topics discussed under the general theme were Toward World Unity by Georgia Dudley, Peace with Freedom by Rufus Hester, To Live in Human Dignity by Fannie May, and Faith in Tomorrow by Peggy Brewington. Robert Howard, senior class president, made the welcome address.

Dr. A. F. Chestnut, chairman of trustees, Morehead City Schools, presented the senior class members with their diplomas.

Fannie May was presented a $75 scholarship to be paid to the school of her choice by the AKA Sorority. Mrs. S. R. McLendon, a member of the sorority, made the presentation.
