OGRACOKE

June 3-Miss Carolyn Garrish, Miss Ellen Marie Fulcher, Ray T. Waller, and Edward C. O'Neal, Ocracoke High School seniors, were awarded their diplomas at the commencement services last night, Sunday, at the local Methodist Church

The Rev. W. W. Clarke, pastor, mon. Miss Fulcher read the scripture lesson, Ray Waller gave the prayer, Miss Garrish made the prayer, Miss Garrish made the farewell address for the Class of 1958, and Edward O'Neal transrepresenting the class flower and class colors to Miss Louise Tolleson, representing the class of 1962. Tommie Gaylerd, superintendent of Hyde County, presented diplomas and principal Rondthaler, awards.

Following a custom established about eight years ago, school chil-dren at Ocracoke placed British flags on the graves of four British sailors who are buried here. They were casualties of HMS Bedford shire which was sunk offshore in May 1942. Two bodies were identified and the crosses bear the names, Lt. Thomas Cunningham and Stanley Craig AB; the other two crosses are marked

Members of the 7th and 8th grades conducted the memorial service this year. Lewis Tolleson, Boy Scout, placed the British flags and read the story of the grave-yard, calling particular attention to the Philips Brooks' inscription on the bronze plaque: "If I should die, think only this of me, That there's some corner of a foreign field, that is forever England."

The flags this year were sent to the school from the British Embassy in Washington, D. C. Sev passy in washington, D. C. Several students recited appropriate poems. Much interest has been shown in preserving the grave-yard; the local Coast Guard assists in keeping the graves enclosed and the plot in good condition. It is one of the places of interest which visitors enjoy seeing here at Ocracoke. Miss Kathleen Bragg, RN, was honored at the recent state meet-ing of public health doctors and nurses in Raleigh, when a citation commending her work as hirse at Ocracoke Island, was read. She made the trip to Raleigh, for the meeting, with Mrs. Benjamin L.

Hardly-yet you and most Americans face that same kind of unfairness all the time with some of your taxes. About 23 centa-out of every dollar you pay for electricity goes for taxes. But because of present tax laws, several million families and businesses escape paying most of the taxes in their electric bills that you pay in yours. They are people whose electricity comes from federal government electric systems. And you have to help make up the taxes they escape.

Most Americans think everyone should pay his fair share of taxes. Don't you agree?
