Married at Williston

Mrs. Terry Whitley Gillikin

Miss Kalani LaConn Mason of Williston became the bride of Terry Whitley Gillikin of Beaufort RFD in a candlelight double ring ceremony Monday, June 2, in the Williston Methodist Church. The Rev. D. M. Tyson, pastor, officiated.

Floor baskets of white gladioli were placed against a background of pine on either side of the altar. The altar rail was entwined with ivy and an arrangement of snapdragons, carnations and fern was placed on the piano.

Mrs. Lionel Salter of Marshallberg, organist, and Miss Trudy Gillikin, sister of the bridegroom, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Lance Smith, Beaufort. She wore a ballerina length gown of nylon lace over satin fashioned with a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with a panel of pleated chiffon in the front.

Her veil of illusion was attached to a crown of lace and seed pearls and she carried a nosegay of red rosebuds.

Mrs. Harold Daniels Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink nylon chiffon over taffeta gown featuring a shirred waist with a draped neckline and full skirt. She carried a basket of carnations, snapdragons, daisies and asters in pink and white.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Peggy Steele, the Misses Jean Gillikin, Clarise Willis, Judy Piner, Beverly Willis and Phyllis Piner, all of Williston.

Three attendants wore gowns of yellow and three wore Nile green, fashioned like that of the honor attendant. They also carried baskets of spring flowers.

Miss Jackie Daniels, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a blue net over taffeta dress and carried a basket of rose petals.

Gordon Daniels, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Louis Grey Thomas was best man for the bridegroom. Phillip Mason, Ted Willis, Paul Wade, David Willis, O'Brien Lawrence and Edward Lawrence were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mason wore a light blue dress with white flowered hat and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Gillikin, mother of the groom, wore a brocade pink dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the bride's home following the wedding. Mrs. Lance Smith greeted guests, Mrs. Elvin Piner poured punch and Mrs. James Willis served cake.

The bride attended Smyrna High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Smyrna High School and is employed by Atkinson Dredging Co., Annapolis, Md.
