

Three Hostesses Honor Miss Verna Jean Rabon

Miss Sue Lewis, Miss Ann Pittman and Mrs. Edwin P. Oglesby Jr. entertained at a kitchen shower Thursday evening at the Oglesby home in honor of Miss Verna Jean Rabon.

Guests were greeted by the hostesses and introduced to Mrs. S. J. Rabon, mother of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Hugh Hill of Beaufort, mother of her fiancé. Corsages of carnations were presented to the honoree and special guests.

Several games of bingo were played and prizes were awarded Mrs. H. D. Ketterer, Mrs. M. M. Ayscove, Mrs. Blanche Snell, Mrs. Walter Glancy, Mrs. Gene Bowen and Miss Cecelia Guthrie.

A contest was held in which guests unscrambled names of trousseau items, foods and household items. Mrs. S. J. Rabon was the winner.

The hostesses served ice cream floats, cookies, salted nuts and mints, after which the honoree opened her gifts. The hostesses presented Miss Rabon a steam iron.

Miss Martha Ann Wade Wins Honor Scholarship

Miss Martha Ann Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wade of Kinston, formerly of Morehead City, has been awarded an honor scholarship to Greensboro College, Greensboro.

Miss Wade received one of twelve awards given for the 1958-59 college term. The awards were based on a high scholastic record and excellence in ability test scores.

Miss Wade plans to work toward a degree in religious drama. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Duffy Wade of Morehead City.

Roland M. Cannon Marries Miss Judy White of Durham

In a formal ceremony Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in the Bragtown Baptist Church, Durham, Miss Judith Mae White became the bride of Roland Marcellas Cannon of Morehead City. Dr. John T. Bunn officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harvey Bob Shoe of Durham and the late George Rober White. She was a granddaughter of the late Rev. W. E. Anderson of this city. Mr. Cannon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cannon of this city.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Betty Hancock, pianist, and Mrs. Nat R. Hunter, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music. The vows were spoken before a background of woodwardia ferns and palms interspersed with wrought iron sandalabra holding lighted cathedral tapers, and floor baskets of white gladiolas, chrysanthemums and pom poms.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Jesse Lawrence Anderson. She wore a formal gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle.

The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a scalloped bateau neckline, long sleeves edged in tulle ruffles and featured an overlapping drape at the waist. The voluminous skirt featured a peplum and front panel of chantilly lace. The sides and back of the skirt were tiers of pleated tulle.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a half hat of lace encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white snowdrift and a white orchid on a Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marshall Cheatham Southerland Jr., sister of the bride, of Hickory. She wore a ballerina length dress of blue taffeta and lace which featured a fitted bodice, circle neckline, abbreviated sleeves and full skirt.

She wore matching shoes and hat with a tiny veil and carried a cascade of pink carnations and roses.

Miss Gwen White, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her dress and hat were like those of the honor attendant. She also carried a cascade of pink carnations and roses.

Best man was Mr. Amos Wayne Parker of Kinston. Mr. Kenneth Ray Harrell and Mr. Frank Delnor Butler of Kinston and Mr. Bobby Ray Clements of Charlotte were ushers.

Mrs. Shoe, mother of the bride, wore a pearl gray dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Cannon, mother of the bridegroom, wore a dress of mauve lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For a wedding trip to western North Carolina the bride wore a green arponi and pima cotton dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will make their home at 206 E. Washington St., Kinston.

The bride is a graduate of Northern High School, Durham, and the groom is a graduate of Morehead City High School. He is employed in Kinston.

THE PACE IS FASTER... BUT THE WHEEL ENDURES

The surging horsepower of the modern motor has replaced Old Dobbins. The wheel is now centered in a pneumatic tire. But the basic principle of the wheel itself remains unchanged. It is still the best means of land transportation. Likewise, have we kept pace with all the improved techniques of banking procedure. But the basic principle on which we conduct this bank remains the same: faithfully to serve the best interests of our clients.
