The wedding was at 9:30 a.m. and a wedding breakfast was held immediately following. Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Oklahoma, where Mr. Free is stationed with the Army.

Married Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Kenneth Neil Putnam Jr.

Miss Joan Seamon and Kenneth Neil Putnam Jr. were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at First Baptist Church.

Dr. John H. Bunn, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with three baskets of white gladiolas and greenery.

Mrs. George Mizesko, organist, and William J. Laughton Jr., soloist, presented a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Wedding selections were All for You, Through the Years and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Jesse L. (Tony) Seamon. She wore a floor length formal gown of handclipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The moulded bodice was designed with a scalloped sabrina neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over the hands.

The voluminous skirt was fashioned with a cascade of ruffles in the front, alternating in lace and crystal pleated tulle. The skirt featured an overlay of lace that extended into a chapel length train.

Her veil of french illusion was attached to a swedish coronet of simulated pearls and iridescent sequins on matching lace. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchids and gardenias.

Mrs. John E. Altyetti, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of mint green nylon over taffeta fashioned with a bouffant skirt and fitted bodice with scoop neckline accented by a bertha collar.

She wore matching gauntlets and carried a fan covered with yellow sweetheart roses. She wore a mint green lace picture hat with ribbons tied under the chin.

Miss Lois Becton, Miss Judy Willis and Mrs. Gordon McCabe, sister of the bride, all of Morehead City, and Miss Wanda Brown of Stacy were bridesmaids. Miss Nina Smith of Charlottesville, Va., cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid and Miss Mary Lou Nelson of Morehead City, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

They all wore gowns and hats like those of the honor attendant and carried fans covered with yellow sweetheart roses.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Williams, Miss Norma Harper and Miss Jane Oglesby of Morehead City. Mrs. Charles Brown of Davis, the Misses Betty Jean and Barbara Ann Blackwell of Oxford, Miss Annette Whaley of Kinston and Miss Frances Wheeler of Raleigh.

All wore pastel dresses and corsages of white carnations.

Mr. Kenneth N. Putnam Sr. of Newport News, Va., was best man for his son. Ushers were Mr. Thurlow Wheaton, Mr. J. L. Seamon Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Wallace Rhodes and Mr. Jimmy Howland, all of Morehead City.

The mother of the bride wore a mauve lace street length dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace dress with matching accessories and a yellow orchid corsage. Mrs. Percy Snooks, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a copen blue lace dress with black accessories.

A reception was held at the home of the bride following the ceremony. Mrs. Ralph Smith of Charlottesville, Va., greeted guests at the door. Mrs. John Mayberry presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Wallace Rhodes poured punch and Mrs. Thurlow Wheaton served cake.

Following a trip, the couple will be at home in Morehead City.

The bride is a graduate of Morehead City High School and attended Campbell College, Buies Creek. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Seamon of this city.

Mr. Putnam is the son of Mrs. Eldon Nelson of this city and Mr. K. N. Putnam Sr. of Newport News, Va. He was graduated from Morehead City High School and attended Atlantic Christian College, Wilson. He is employed by National Biscuit Co.

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor Hosts at Hawaiian Luau

Mr. and Mrs. John McGregor were hosts to the SS Couple's Club Saturday evening and entertained at a Hawaiian luau. On arrival each guest was presented a lei, made by the hostess.

The luau was served on a long low table covered with fox grape leaves. Wooden dishes and bowls were filled with iced shrimp with sauce, crabs, barbecued chicken halves, baked bananas, yams, and corn on the cob with melted butter. Puka punch was served from a lined wicker basket. Coconut cups for the punch were made by the host.

After the luau, a basket was passed which contained iced fresh pineapple slices, plums, orange slices, peach halves and pear slices. During the luau, recordings of Hawaiian music were played.

A Hawaiian motif was carried out in the decorations. The picture window was hung with net, to which were fastened various local shells. Two vases of red and white gladiolas and driftwood were placed by the window. Bongo drums hung from the walls.

Guests at the luau were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mays, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hyman Jr.
