

Crossword Puzzle

- ACROSS
1. Belgian commune
  4. Likely
  7. Jar
  12. Mine
  13. By means of
  14. Writing material
  15. New Zealand clan
  16. Captivating
  18. Ribbed fabrics
  20. Keen
  21. Rolls
  23. Attempt
  27. Card game
  28. Dry
  29. Old musical note
  31. Melted
  34. Warm season

Solution to Tuesday's Puzzle

- ACROSS
26. In disagreement
  27. Title of a baronet
  29. Went easily
  40. Unwanted plant
  42. Mild
  44. Girl's name
  46. Walked
  49. Moham-medan sabers
  53. Rice paste
  54. Brother of Moses
  55. Sheep-killing parrot
  56. Golf gadget
  57. Hoisting machine
- DOWN
1. Separate
  2. Saltpeper
  3. Specify
  4. Monkey
  5. Punitive
  6. Slight amounts
  7. Place
  8. Rabbits
  9. Himalayan mt.
  10. Range of knowledge
  11. Work unit
  17. Ponders
  19. Crystal-ized rain
  22. Performs
  24. Moderate
  25. Away from windward
  26. Post
  29. System of worship
  31. Flax
  32. Color
  33. Number
  35. Shed feathers
  38. Recapture
  41. Friend of Pythias
  43. Nostrils
  45. Baseball team
  47. Sign
  48. Convey property
  49. Membr-nous pouch
  50. Automobile
  51. One of David's rulers
  52. Took a chair

'Tea' at Governor's Mansion

Mrs. G. T. Spivey, Beaufort, center, health chairman for the State Federal of Home Demonstration Clubs, pours punch at the tea at the governor's mansion during Farm-Home Week at Raleigh. Other women in the picture are not identified.

Home Demonstration News

Mrs. Ben Jones Tells Of Farm-Home Week

By FLOY G. GARNER
Home Agent

Mrs. Ben Jones of Beaufort, and Russells Creek Home Demonstration Club is our guest writer today, bringing you an on-the-scenes account of Farm-Home Week activities.

"Around 1,500 Home Demonstration Club women attended the 50th annual Farm-Home Week, June 9-12, on the campus of North Carolina State College in Raleigh. There were representatives from each of the counties in the state, including Mrs. Gerald Troyer, Mrs. Billy Smith, Mrs. B. G. Hardy, Mrs. Guy Carraway, Mrs. Lee Garner, Mrs. Will Dail, Mrs. Ben Jones, Mrs. Douglas Stewart and Mrs. G. T. Spivey, club women, and Mrs. Floyd Garner, home agent from Carteret.

An outstanding program was presented, stressing the advancement that has been made along the lines of agriculture, science and education. A challenge was given club women to be community leaders in making possible greater achievements on the farm, in the home, and in our school.

President Presides

The William Neal Reynolds Coliseum was the center of activities with Mrs. L. B. Pate, of New Bern, president of NC Home Demonstration Clubs, presiding at most of the meetings.

Those attending were privileged to hear interesting and informative talks and discussions on national and state educational trends, and science and the citizen of tomorrow by such outstanding speakers as Chancellor C. H. Bostian of State College; Dean D. W. Colvard of the State College School of Agriculture; Director D. S. Weaver of the Agricultural Extension Service, NC State College; Dr. Charles F. Carroll, superintendent of State Department of Public

Bill Friday, president of the University of North Carolina, left, Mrs. L. B. Pate, president of the State Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs, and Mrs. Will Dail, North River, view Honduran flag carried by Mrs. Dail in United Nations program at Farm-Home Week. A Home Demonstration Club member, right, admires the flag.

Instruction; Dr. Gorgon Blackwell, Chancellor Woman's College, UNC; Dr. Charles McNary, Public Relations Director of Blue Bell, Inc., Greensboro; Alvin Proctor, Public Relations Department of E. I.

News from RUSSELL'S CREEK

June 25 — Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Worthington and two sons, George and Edward, of Ohio, spent several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Worthington.

Mrs. A. H. Pate and son, Roy, of Goldsboro, visited her uncle, George Russell, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dudiey and children, who have been visiting here for a week returned to their home in High Point Sunday. They were accompanied by Mr. John Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prentice and son, William, of Auburn, N. Y., arrived Sunday to spend some time with her mother, Mrs. W. R. Powell and brother, Wilson.

Miss Bettie Parker of near Wilson attended preaching services here Sunday morning.

The Pamlico Union meeting will convene at Edwards Christian Church Saturday, June 28. We are sending as delegates Mrs. George Russell, Mrs. Ruby Norman and Mr. Jim Skinner.

Mrs. Edward Combs of Goldsboro visited relatives here Wednesday.

peries, wallpaper, furniture and painted walls, were combined to illustrate her talk.

Thursday was set aside as the 35th annual meeting of the State Home Demonstration Clubs. This program was opened by a colorful parade of flags, by 81 women, each dressed to represent a different member of the United Nations. They also carried the flag of the country they represented.

Officers Installed

Officers for the coming year were elected and installed, with Mrs. V. I. Hockaday of Roanoke Rapids as new president.

Leaders in the Home Demonstration Clubs were recognized and each given an award of a large silver tray. An honor club of women was also recognized—not only for outstanding work in their communities but for having attended Farm-Home Week for at least four consecutive years.

On Thursday, at noon, a luncheon was enjoyed at the Student Union Building. At this time, assistant director R. W. Shoffner gave evaluation and highlights of the Farm-Home Week. He ended his summary by saying that speaker after speaker brought out the fact that we are living in a constantly changing time. "Times are changing so rapidly that we don't realize it. This is true in science, education, and agriculture. Before one piece of research is completed, it is out of date."

The week's activities ended Thursday afternoon with a tea at the Governor's Mansion, at which Mrs. G. T. Spivey, health chairman, and a Carteret County club woman, served punch.

Past is Present

Salt Lake City (AP)—University of Utah experts had disappointing news for a group of uranium miners who thought the living frog they uncovered in a petrified log was a creature from prehistoric times. University zoology experts said it was a common tree frog.

Doris Phillips, Morehead City senior 4-H Club member, left, models dress she designed and made. She won top place in the recent 4-H county dress revue sponsored by Home Demonstration Clubs. Ann Stanley, right, models a dress which won first place for her mother, Mrs. Charles Stanley.

Charlotte Boys Operate Unusual New Cemetery

Charlotte, N. C. (AP)—There's a little graveyard here with a flock of markers, called Animal Hill in the manner of the Western badmen's cemetery, Boot Hill.

Ten-year-olds Jerry Williams, Terry Hill and Larry Martin said they got started with a blue jay that forgot to go south for the winter. Now there are crosses for 15 birds, two rats, one hamster and one snake.

"We kept finding the birds," Larry said. "After we started putting up the crosses, other people would bring them." Now there's a painted sign labelling the place.

OTTIS' FISH MARKET
8th and Evans Sta. Morehead City

DRESSED AND DELIVERED
Just Call — Phone 6-4020

It's Economical to Serve Delicious,
Easy to Prepare Seafood. Have Some Today!

NEW MONEY SAVER

- All-new Mercury
- High-economy V-8 engine
- Fully equipped — year's lowest price

THE ECONOMY YOU WANT
Mercury's all-new gas-saving V-8 engine squeezes extra power from every drop of gas. You get mileage you can boast about.

THE SIZE AND POWER YOU NEED
You get prestige-car luxury—powerful performance and craftsmanship that rivals custom cars. And you'll appreciate Mercury's spacious interior. It's the difference between "room enough" and solid comfort.

AT A PRICE YOU CAN AFFORD
This beautiful Big M comes fully equipped with automatic transmission, power steering, radio and heater at a price that rivals similarly equipped "low-price 3" cars. Come in today—we have a Mercury to fit your budget.

MERCURY/58

HARDESTY MOTORS
1302 Arendell St. Phone 6-3006 Morehead City

Instruction; Dr. Gorgon Blackwell, Chancellor Woman's College, UNC; Dr. Charles McNary, Public Relations Director of Blue Bell, Inc., Greensboro; Alvin Proctor, Public Relations Department of E. I. DuPont de Nemours & Co., Wilmington, Del.

Other speakers were Mr. William A. Newell, director of textile research, School of Textiles, State College; Dr. Hazel Stiebeling, agricultural research service, Washington, D. C.; Edward Loewenstein, Woman's College; President William C. Friday, The Consolidated University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; Assistant Director R. W. Shoffner, agricultural extension service, State College.

A highlight of each program was group singing led by Dr. Arnold E. Hoffman with Mrs. Hoffman at the organ.

Mrs. Harry Overstreet and his wife, Mrs. Bonaro Overstreet, noted psychologists, authors and lecturers, gave excellent advice on how to live with ourselves. They stressed the value of having a mature mind and gave examples which show our degree of maturity.

Mrs. Peggy Lippe of Birmingham, owner and operator of a modeling school, gave an interesting demonstration on the how's and why's of glamour, entitled "Your Carriage, Madam."

Value of Speech

In a very pleasing manner, Miss Makeda Von Hesse of the Von Hesse Studios of New York City, told the value of effective speech in making a happier, more fruitful life.

Taxis were provided for all those wishing to visit the State Art Gallery. There were also exhibits and classes in table setting, arts and crafts, planting and care of home grounds, and wash and wear fabrics.

A demonstration "House Furnishings in Revue" was given by Miss Pauline Gordon, extension specialist in housing and house furnishings, State College. New styles in furnishings were shown as well as how to give present furnishings a new look. The combination of various colors was discussed and samples of rugs, dra-

JACQUIN'S vodka

ROYALE
$2 PINT

DISILLED FROM GRAIN — 80 PROOF
CHARLES JACQUIN et Cie, Inc., Phila., Pa.

Good Things come in Sealtest Packages

Get the Best ... Get Sealtest DAIRY PRODUCTS