Mrs. Vincent Louis DiTizio

Miss Linda Carol Long of Staten Island, N. Y., became the bride of Vincent Louis DiTizio, also of Staten Island, in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Staten Island.

The Rev. James Griffin officiated. Baskets of white seasonal flowers were used to decorate the church.

Mrs. McKeever, organist, and Miss Trainor, soloist, provided wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Clifford W. Atkinson. She wore a floor length gown of re-embroidered alencon lace and taffeta fashioned along princess lines.

The bodice featured a sabrina neckline and long pointed sleeves. A large flat bow at the waistline in back gave a bustle effect and the back of the skirt flared into a chapel train.

She wore an open-crown cap of orange blossoms sprinkled with seed pearls, from which her three-tiered fingertip veil fell. Her bouquet was a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and baby's breath, centered with white orchids.

Miss Jean LaGanga, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length princess gown of lemon yellow taffeta fashioned with a sabrina neckline and cap sleeves.

Matching taffeta formed a sash effect with a bow near the hemline in the back.

She wore a small yellow cap with scalloped round veil and carried a cascade of orange delight roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Miss Nancy Atkinson, cousin of the bride, and Miss Louise DiTizio, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

They wore mint green dresses identical to that of the honor attendant, with small matching hats. They carried cascades of yellow roses, and baby's breath.

Eason-O'Boyle

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. O'Boyle announce the marriage of their daughter, Phyllis Francine, to William Chaplin Eason, son of Mrs. W. W. Porter of Edenton and the late John Q. Eason.

The marriage took place Saturday, May 31, in Columbia, S. C.

Committees are Named For Society Dinner Party

Committees for the dinner party of the Rosary-Altar Society, to be given July 26, were named at the society meeting Wednesday night at St. Egbert's school.

Mrs. W. B. Norris Jr., vice-president, presided. Mrs. Dom Fernia will be chairman of the dinner committee and will be assisted by Mrs. Ralph Gray, Mrs. Fred Anthony and Mrs. Nicholas DeLuca.

The parcel post booth will be staffed by Mrs. Vic Bellamah and Mrs. W. H. Williams. The beach booth, offering items of interest to swimmers, will be operated by Mrs. Elmer Veitch and Miss Flora Gote.

Mrs. Norris and Mrs. Joseph Drewry will take up tickets for the $150 gift certificate from Hamilton Furniture Center. Mrs. Alan M. Feresby will accept admission charges of $1 per person at the door.

The special program at the meeting was an entertaining talk by Father James Driscoll, brother of Mrs. William Reese. He "brought down the house" with his observations of the sufferings of the baby-sitting husbands of club-going wives and was equally amusing with tales of his experiences as a priest.

Father Driscoll is principal of Notre Dame High School and pastor of a small parish in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. T. C. Hyman read an essay, Love for Self, from the July Rosary Bulletin.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Father Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Stewart Hill

Hill-Rabon Vows Spoken

In a candlelight double ring ceremony Saturday evening, June 21, in the First Methodist Church Miss Verna Jean Rabon of this city and Dwight Stewart of Braufort were married.

The Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor, officiated. Floor baskets and urns of white gladiolas, carnations and greenery and seven-branched candelabra were used to decorate the church.

Mrs. George Mizesko, organist, and Mr. Bobby Bell, soloist, presented nuptial music prior to the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of tulle over satin with panels of chantilly lace on the bouffant skirt.

The bodice of lace featured a scalloped neckline and was embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. Long sleeves ended in calla points over the hands.

She carried a colonial bouquet of white feathered carnations and lilies of the valley. Her veil was attached to a Queen Ann cap of lace and sequins bordered with seed pearls.

Mrs. Sidney James Rabon Jr. of Loring AFB, Me., was matron of honor. She wore a mint green gown of nylon chiffon and chamilly lace featuring a voluminous skirt with rows of lace ruffles and small matching bows.

Recent Bride Honored At Shower on Tuesday

Mrs. William C. Eason, bride of May 31, was honored at a surprise shower Tuesday evening at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. M. C. Adams.

Hostesses were Mrs. Earl Noe of Braufort, Miss Deanie Adams and Miss Geraldine Murrill.

The table was decorated with candelabra holding white tapers and was centered with a miniature bride and groom. Gardenias and ivy were placed around the candles and centerpiece.

The honoree, who is the former Phyllis O'Boyle, and her mother, Mrs. E. F. O'Boyle, received corsages. Mrs. Eason received white carnations and Mrs. O'Boyle received pink carnations.

Miss Patsy Hardesty of Braufort and Mrs. George Wainwright served lime punch, salted nuts, bridal mints and block cake to the 45 guests.

Bingo was played during the evening and prizes were awarded the winners.

Mrs. Taylor Entertains To Honor Mrs. Cooper
