NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY
North Carolina
Carteret County
Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust executed by J. J. Quinn and wife, Helen H. Quinn, dated May 2, 1955, to the undersigned Trustee for First-Citizens Bank and Trust Company, and covering lands in Lenoir County, Duplin County, and also the hereinafter described dwelling and lot and personal property situate in Carteret County, and the said deed of trust, in addition to being recorded in Lenoir and Duplin Counties, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Carteret County, North Carolina, in Book 161, at page 630, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, and the said deed of trust being by the terms thereof subject to foreclosure, or any part thereof, including the personal property hereinafter described, and the holder of the indebtedness secured by said deed of trust having requested a foreclosure by the trustee of the hereinafter described real and personal property situate in Carteret County, North Carolina, and being the third tract described in said deed of trust, for the purpose of applying the net proceeds of sale on said indebtedness, and expressly reserving all of its rights and liens covering the lands described in Lenoir and Duplin Counties, which are not at this time being foreclosed, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the courthouse door in Carteret County, Beaufort, North Carolina, at about 12 o'clock noon, on Monday, the 28th day of July, 1958, the lands and personal property conveyed in said deed of trust and situate in Morehead City, Carteret County, North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

Legal Notices

Being Lot No. 501, according to a map of Morehead City, N. C., made by George J. Brooks, C.E., January 1949, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Carteret County, N. C., in Map Book 1, page 139. Also, all the personal property now in the dwelling on said lot; and being the same property described and conveyed in that certain deed appearing of record in Book 123, page 82, Carteret County Registry. And being the same lands and personal property conveyed to Helen H. Quinn by J. J. Quinn by deed of record in Carteret County in Book 154, at page 380. And being the house and lot designated as No. 2413 Evans St., Morehead City, North Carolina, and is a water-front lot.
The personal property offered for sale consists of the household and kitchen furniture, including electric stove and electric refrigerator and kitchen equipment situate on the premises and connected with the occupation and use thereof.
The said personal property above described will remain in said premises and will not be present at the courthouse door, but reasonable opportunity will be afforded every prospective purchaser or bidder to inspect both the real and personal property prior to the sale by applying at the office of Chalk & Gibbs, Morehead City, N. C., and arranging a time for such inspection.
The said house and lot above described, together with its contents, will be offered together as a lump sale for cash. The above described real and personal property will be sold free and clear of all prior existing liens, except the lien of all taxes and special assessments levied and assessed against said property subsequent to the year 1957.
The trustee will require the successful bidder at the sale to immediately deposit with the trustee cash, or certified check, in the amount of 10% of the high bid, as evidence of good faith.
This, the 26th day of June, 1958.

Social Security Visits to Change

The day on which the social security representative visits the courthouse, Beaufort, will change next week. Instead of being at the courthouse Wednesdays, he will be there Mondays.

The social security representative has office hours in the courthouse annex from 9:30 a.m. to noon. His first visit on the new schedule will be next Monday, July 7.

Persons may also write, phone or visit the Social Security office in New Bern Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The office address is Social Security Administration, 305 Pollock St., New Bern, N. C., phone 7-4263.

Persons may write there if they would like a free booklet explaining social security.

Groups which would like to have a social security representative speak to them are invited to contact the New Bern office. W. W. Thomas is district manager.

The office is not open on Saturdays or legal holidays.

Free-Loading Pup
Richmond, Va. (AP) — Girl, a stray dog, walked into Mrs. Carol Williams back yard and gave birth to 10 puppies. When news of the blessed event got around the neighborhood one of Girl's great secrets were revealed. Several persons were feeding her regularly when she paid daily calls and each thought she was the dog's sole source of food. All had wondered why sometimes she wasn't hungry.
