

Marshallberg Youth Week Will Get Under Way Sunday

This Sunday evening the Youth Activities Week at Marshallberg gets under way. The six-day session, July 6-11, is being sponsored by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Trinity Methodist Church in Marshallberg, and will be attended by youth groups from Methodist churches throughout Carter County.

The week will feature such activities as fellowship singing, discussion, recreation, and worship. Four separate discussion groups have been planned for each evening. The Rev. John Cline, pastor of Ann Street Methodist Church in Beaufort, will lead the discussion for the intermediate age group.

James F. McDonald, Duke Divinity School student, will lead the seniors. The Rev. William M. Jeffries, pastor of the Marshallberg church, will lead the Older Youth. A special discussion for counselors will be led by the Rev. Ralph Fleming, pastor of Newport Methodist Church, and district youth director for the Methodist Church.

Mr. McDonald will speak at the Sunday through Tuesday worship programs and Mr. Jeffries will speak at the Wednesday through Friday programs.

The theme for the week, "Who is this God in whom we believe?" will be developed in the worship programs. In addition, there will be discussions on the topics, witnessing, friendships, the home, prayer, and worship.

On Sunday evening the program opens with registration at 7 p.m. The regular Sunday night service and the youth worship program will be combined in a service beginning at 7:45 p.m.

On every other evening except for Wednesday and Friday the program will begin at 7:15 p.m. The parents are requested to attend Wednesday evening's program, beginning with a covered dish supper at 6:15. On this evening the discussion will deal with teenage-parent relations.

On Friday night the program, climaxed with a service of dedication, will begin with a sacrificial meal at 6:30 p.m. The meal will consist of crackers and water, and each young person will bring an amount equal to the cost of a regular meal. The money, thus given in the spirit of sacrifice, will be designated for the Methodist Youth Fund.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Kenneth Willis, refreshments will be served each evening by mothers of the Marshallberg MYF members.

Pastor Represents Church At Conference in Wilson

The Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor of First Methodist Church, Morehead City, represented the church at the conference sessions in First Methodist Church, Wilson, June 23-26. The lay delegate representing First Church was James B. Webb. During the conference, several other lay-men and lay-women attended. The pastor reports a highly successful conference, marking distinct advances in the total program of Eastern North Carolina Methodism.

Outstanding, perhaps, were the definite plans made for financing the two Methodist colleges within the conference borders, the Methodist college at Fayetteville and Wesleyan College at Rocky Mount, N. C.

Campaigns beginning in the fall, 1958, will lay plans to underwrite the successful establishment of these colleges. Properties have been presented by the citizens of the two cities and work is already in progress at both places. Partial administrative staffs for each of the institutions have already been selected by the two boards of trustees.

Newport Boys Win State Degree

Fred Patrick Corbett and Tommy Howard of the Newport Chapter of Future Farmers of America received the State Farmer Degree at the state FFA convention during a special ceremony on Friday, June 27.

This degree is the third of the four possible degrees obtainable in the organization. To be a recipient, candidates must be outstanding in leadership, proficient in parliamentary procedure, have completed an outstanding program in supervised practice work, showing a good net profit with a minimum bank account.

They must have demonstrated their ability as a public speaker and group leader, actively participated in school and community activities, have a satisfactory scholarship record, pass a special test provided by the state association and receive a majority vote of delegates at the state convention.

This degree cannot be given on a local level; it must always be presented at the state association convention. The Newport candidates received a golden charm of the State Farmer which is symbolic of the worthiness of their achievements and further symbolic of the golden opportunities for service in their state and community if they continue their progress and enthusiasm. They also received a certificate in recognition of their accomplishments.

Tommy and "Pat" were graduated from the Newport High School in May of this year.
