Fishermen are Encouraged To Go After Blue Fin Tuna

FabFisherman Bob Simpson de-+ clares that sportsfishermen can go after the big blue fin tuna off the Carteret Coast and have success if they are properly equipped. Simpson wrote John H. Egly, vice-president of Penn Fishing

Tackle MIg. Co., Philadelphia, and asked him about the best methods for landing the big tuna. Mr. Egly sent the following letter:

Judging from your letter the tuna you speak of were of the giant tuna size that really go when they have a mind to. For full size tuna like that, 14/0 reels, plenty of 36 thread line and a big game rod are needed, to put pressure on 'em. The harder they are fought from
