Wed Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. Perry Meloan Taylor III

Miss Laura Elizabeth Roberts and Perry Meloan Taylor III were united in marriage in a candlelight double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in First Methodist Church.

The Rev. Robert M. Pouik, uncle of the bride, and the Rev. J. Furman Herbert, pastor, officiated. Floor baskets and vases of white gladiolus, ferns, and palms were used to decorate the church. Seven-branched candelabra held lighted cathedral tapers and lighted candles were placed on the altar.

Organ selections by Mrs. Theodore Phillips included Ave Maria, Beloved, and I Love You Truly. Solos by Miss Jeanne Barnes were O Perfect Love and Because. She sang the Wedding Prayer as a benediction.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of rosepoint lace and tulle over bridal satin. The moulded bodice featured a pleated tulle band around the deep

V neckline and long tapering sleeves. The voluminous skirt of scalloped lace fell over two rows of pleated tulle at the bottom, the tulle extending into a sweeping train.

She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion draped from a small Juliet cap smocked with seed pearls, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid showered with lilies of the valley and white streamers. Miss Rose Daniels attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a white nylon dotted swiss gown made with a bateau neckline dipping to a V in the back, and cap sleeves.

The bouffant skirt was accented with a sash of white crushed chiffon with streamers extending down the back. She wore a white open-crown picture hat with blue shoes and gloves and carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus and white asters with blue ribbons and tulle. The Misses Jacquie Roberts, sister of the bride, Elizabeth Taylor, sister of the bridegroom, Kay Mansfield, Renee Kemp, all of Morehead City, Rae Frances Hassell of Beaufort and Bobbie McRackan of Scotland Neck were bridesmaids.

They wore gowns and hats identical to those of the honor attendant in light blue and carried all-white bouquets of gladiolus and asters.

Mr. Perry Meloan Taylor Jr. was best man for his son. Grooms-men were Arthur Taylor, brother of the bridegroom, Watson Morris, David Newberry, Edward Smithwick, John Ballou, all of Morehead City, and Jackie Wheatley of Beaufort.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Roberts wore a beige silk organza dress embroidered with white silk scrolls. She wore matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a light blue lace dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. Arrangements of white flowers and greenery and candelabra holding lighted tapers were used throughout the house.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. J. W. Jackson and Mrs. W. C. Carlton. Mrs. D. G. Bell presided at the bride's book, Mrs. N. F. Eure of Beaufort, grandmother of the bride, presided in the gift room and goodbyes were said to Mrs. Thurlow Wheaton.

Serving punch and cake in the dining room and on the back lawn were Mrs. Ashby King, Miss Ada Whitehurst, Mrs. L. A. Daniels, Mrs. Truman Kemp, Mrs. J. Gray Hassell, Mrs. W. R. McRackan, Mrs. Graham W. Duncan and Mrs. James Wheatley.
