Bayview Cemetery Gets New Type of Fencing

Jasper Bell, Morehead City buildings and grounds commissioner, reported Friday that a brick-type fence is being put around Bay View Cemetery.

The new section of the cemetery, just north of Fisher Street is the first to get the improvement. Along 20th Street, brick pillars are being built, connected by galvanized rails.

Mr. Bell said that all the present fencing (whitewashed wood) must be replaced and that the brick pillar plan seems to be the most economical and durable.
