Sgt. Robert Hume, USMC, Marries Miss Jessie Lee White Tuesday

Miss Jessie Lee White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. White, Beaufort-Morehead Causeway, became the bride of Sgt. Robert D. Hume, son of Mrs. David Darnall, East Moline, Ill., in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 Tuesday evening in the First Baptist Church, Morehead City.

The Rev. Noah Brown, Morehead City, officiated. Baskets of white gladiolas, and seven-branched candelabra with white tapers, were used at the altar.

Mrs. Josephine Mizesko, organist, played O Promise Me, Because and as a benediction, The Lord's Prayer. Miss Jean Barnes, Morehead City, was soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Ralph Gurley, Goldsboro. She wore a street-length dress of chantilly lace over white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a bateau neckline and the wide skirt fell in soft pleats.

Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a Juliet cap of white satin. She carried a prayer book topped with white carnations, showered with satin streamers.

Miss Kay Kirby, cousin of the bride, King, N. C., wore a pale yellow street-length dress with puffed sleeves, fitted bodice, soft pleated skirt and carried a cascade of spring flowers with satin streamers.

Mr. David Darnall, the bridegroom's stepfather, was best man. Ushers were Cpl. Eldon Drenthe, USMC, Chicago, Ill., and Mr. Frank Hoy of Garner, N. C.

The bride's mother wore a beige taffeta dress with black and white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy sheath dress with white accessories and a red carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception on the lawn at the home of the bride.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Darnall, Mrs. White, Miss Kirby, the bride and bridegroom, and Mrs. Earl Holt of Morehead City.

Serving punch and coffee were Miss Carolyn Kirby, King, N. C., cousin of the bride, and Miss Jody White, sister of the bride. Miss Fay Jones, Morehead City, served the cake.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live at Jacksonville, N. C. The bride is a graduate of Morehead City High School. Her husband is a graduate of East Moline High and is stationed in the Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune.
