Awards are Presented By Cub Pack Wednesday

Cub Scout Pack 367 held its monthly meeting at the Episcopal center west of Atlantic Beach Wednesday afternoon. After playing on the beach a picnic supper was served.

Games were played and prizes were awarded for guessing the number of fish eggs, marbles in a jar, and catching the largest cardboard fish.

An awards presentation ceremony was held and the following boys received awards:

Julius Adair, den 1, received a lion badge, gold arrow point and silver arrow point; Phillip Bennett, den 1, received a silver arrow point and lion badge; William I. Adair and John Chadwick of den 4 both received gold arrow points and silver arrow points.

Terry Rhue of den 1, a charter member of the pack, got the highest award in Cub Scouting, the webelos badge. Terry is the first pack member to receive the honor badge, which is the only Cub Scout badge that may be worn on a Boy Scout uniform. Terry is now ready to join the Boy Scouts, for by passing his webelos rank, he met the tenderfoot requirements of a Boy Scout.

Mr. Ed Nelson, scoutmaster, has spoken to Terry about becoming a den chief as soon as he is a first class scout. Mrs. Elmond Rhue, Terry's mother, received an expression of appreciation for her work and loyalty to Cub Scouting.

Following the presentation of awards, a watermelon cutting was enjoyed, after which the pack meeting adjourned.
