Married Saturday Afternoon

Mrs. William Donaldson Campbell

In a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in First Baptist Church, Miss Barbara Blanchard of Raleigh became the bride of William Donaldson Campbell, also of Raleigh.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Clyde Blanchard of this city. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John William Campbell of Charlotte.

Dr. John H. Bunn of Durham, former pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Floor baskets of white gladiolas and candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers were used to decorate the church.

Mrs. George Mizeko of this city, organist; and Mrs. Bradley Benell of Raleigh, soloist, presented nuptial music prior to the wedding. Selections were With This Ring I Thee Wed, The Sweetest Story Ever Told, and The Wedding Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of off-white chantilly lace and net over bridal satin.

The fitted bodice featured long sleeves tapering to points over the hands and a round neckline outlined with white lace appliques accented with iridescent sequins. The full pleated skirt fell from a slightly pointed waist.

She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion attached to an open crown of nylon and satin braid. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white fringed carnations and showered with satin streamers and lilies of the valley.

Miss Wynona Blanchard of Raleigh, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length blue cotton frock fashioned along princess lines. The dress, which was topped with a short jacket, featured a lace top highlighted with self-covered buttons and a softly flared skirt.

She carried a ballerina bouquet of pink fringed carnations tied with matching ribbons, and wore a white picture hat.
