

Register of Deeds Records 57 Real Estate Transfers

There were 57 real estate transfers recorded in the county July 15-28. They follow:

(Editor's Note: In recording real estate transfers, the law does not require that the amount paid for the property be stated in the deed. A token amount, such as $10 or $100, may be stipulated.

Attached to each deed, however, must be United States documentary stamps, the value of the stamps based on the price paid for the property.

Property which changes hands for less than $101 requires no stamp, according to Irvin W. Davis, register of deeds. Property which brings a price between $101 and $500 must bear a stamp valued at 55 cents. From $501 to $1,000, the stamps affixed to the deed total $1.10, and thereafter for each additional $500 paid for the property the stamp value goes up 55 cents.

From the value of the stamps placed on a deed an estimation of the price paid for the property can be determined. In the transfers listed below, the seller is listed first, the buyer second, and finally, the value of the stamp affixed to the deed).

Schools

2. Maintain elementary schools, grades 1 through 8, at Harkers Island, Smyrna and Beaufort. Morehead City and Newport:

1. Establish a new high school on a new site located as conveniently as possible to pupils in the Morehead City, Camp Glenn and Newport districts. A site of 30 acres is recommended for a school that would accommodate 600. (Mr. Joslyn again believes that the 600-pupil school building would be too small, and that 30 acres is a larger site than necessary. He points out that Morehead City district has 36.2 per cent of all pupils in the county and that Beaufort and Morehead City together have 65.96 per cent of all school pupils).

2. Maintain elementary schools, grades 1 through 8, at Morehead City, Camp Glenn and Newport Schools. At present they are overcrowded.

Atlantic:

1. The Atlantic High School should be maintained as it is. Due to location, transporting pupils to a newly-established high school would mean transporting them almost "prohibitive distances".

2. Operating costs of such a small high school are high, but a "quality program" can be provided if sufficient funds are available for extra teachers.

3. The program should be broadened to include some type of vocational work, preferably industrial arts.

4. The gymnasium should be underpinned, more adequate dressing-room showers should be provided; building should have more adequate heating.

Queen Street:

1. A minimum of four classrooms and a gymnasium are necessary to meet present needs. The committee seriously doubts the wisdom of expanding the school on its already overcrowded site. All adjacent property available should be obtained. Land across the street should be developed for playground purposes.

2. Acquire a new site for a high school and construct now only those facilities needed to relieve overcrowding.

3. If Queen Street School loses a substantial number of high school students because of withdrawal of pupils in Craven County, consideration might be given to sending the remaining high school pupils at Queen Street to W. S. King School.

Camp Glenn:

1. If a new high school is built to accommodate Morehead City pupils, some space will be available at the present Morehead City School to relieve Camp Glenn. Therefore, if more classrooms must be added to Camp Glenn immediately, a building that could be used later as a multi-purpose room should be considered.

2. If the present rate of growth in this area continues, a new elementary school on a new site may be necessary.

White Oak:

1. Pupils in this area of the county have been accommodated by Onslow County since 1948. The White Oak School burned that year. The present arrangement should be maintained, if it is satisfactory to the Carteret and Onslow people. Should developments warrant it, consideration might be given to re-establishment of an elementary school at White Oak.

2. The high school arrangement for pupils should be continued indefinitely (Carteret high school students in this area attend Swansboro school).

Stella:

1. Little, if any increase can be expected in enrollment. No expenditures should be made to the building beyond that which is necessary for normal maintenance, health and safety of the pupils.

Also appointed at the board of education meeting yesterday was a committee to look into establishing adult classes in various phases of the fishing industry.

Pfc. Robert A. Pagano Studies Jet Mechanics

Memphis, Tenn. — Marine Pfc. Robert A. Pagano entered the Navy's Jet Mechanics School July 7 at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Memphis, Tenn.

He is the son of Peter J. Pagano and husband of the former Miss Patricia L. Robinson, both of Macon Court, Morehead City.

Before entering the school, he completed a six-week course in aviation fundamentals at the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla.

Pagano graduated from Morehead City High School before entering the Marine Corps in October, 1957.

Great Lakes, Ill. — Robert L. Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lathan E. Rose of Harkers Island, graduated from recruit training July 26 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

Aschaffenburg, Germany—Army Pfc. Homer K. Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Russell, route 1 Newport, recently participated in a field training exercise with the 3d Division's 7th Infantry in Germany.

Russell, a rifleman in the infantry's Company A, arrived in Europe last April. He entered the Army in October 1957 and completed basic training at Fort Benning, Ga.

The 19-year-old soldier attended Swansboro High School.

Pensacola, Fla. — A first solo flight was made July 1, by Naval Aviation Cadet John C. Deibert, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Deibert of route 1 Morehead City.

In addition to solo flights, Deibert is being instructed in communications, navigation, engineering, athletics, aerology and civil air regulations during basic flight training at Pensacola, Fla.

Chincoteague, Va. — William C. Gillikin, aviation machinist's mate apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Gillikin of Smyrna, is serving with Guided Missile Group Two at the Naval Air Station, Chincoteague, Va.

Kodiak, Alaska—Ernest L. Toler, boatswain's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Toler of 218 Fulford St., Beaufort, and husband of Mrs. Mildred Toler of Oakland, Calif., sailed July 7 for Kodiak, Alaska, aboard the icebreaker Burton Island enroute to Point Barrow, Alaska's northernmost point.

A unit of Task Force 93, the Burton Island will help support the Canadian Department of Transport Forces presently resupplying the DEW-Line (Distant Early Warning) sites from Barter Island to Shepherd's Bay. In addition, the Burton Island will assist the combined U. S.-Canadian hydrographic survey program.

The Burton Island is expected to return to Seattle, Wash., in late September.

It's TV for the Best In Film Entertainment

After Pop's busy day at the office — and Mom's trying day at the beach with the kids, it's a relief to flop in front of the tv and be transported, just as you are, to the fantasy worlds of comedy, love, and adventure.

If you've got a favorite tv fare, as most of us do, either comedies, quizzes (guessing games and contests), or drama (westerns, theatre, mysteries), here are the highlights, by category, tonight through Thursday:

Tonight

Comedy — At 7 on channel 7, Boss Lady; at 8 on channel 9, Mr. Adams and Eve (Eve tries her best to give Howard a surprise party); and at 9:30 on channel 7 on the Bob Cummings show, Schultz pulls out all the stops to make Bob aware that she's mad about him.

Quiz — 7:30 on channel 9, Name That Tune (film from the past season); and at 10 on channel 9, Bid 'n' Buy.

Dr. A. F. Chestnut, chairman, W. H. Potter, Clayton Fulcher Jr., T. T. Potter, George Wallace and T. B. Smith.

George West, Wilmington, explained the vocational fisheries courses to the board and to others affiliated with the fishing industry. Cecil Morris, C. G. Holland, George Stovall, and the committee members.

Fire Alarm
Morehead City firemen were called to the Morehead City Shipbuilding Corp. at 1:50 p.m. Saturday but whatever was burning was out by the time firemen got there. They returned to the station.

Drama — 7:30 on channel 7, Highway Patrol; at 8 on channel 7, Investigator (in color); 8:30 on channel 9, Wyatt Earp's young brother comes to Dodge, hoping his brother will make him a deputy; at 9 on channel 9, Sea Hunt; at 9:30, Charlie Chan, and at 10 on channel 7, The Californians — in tonight's story Matt Wayne meets the son of a well-known trouble-maker.

Tomorrow Night

Comedy — At 8:30 on channel 7 in Father Knows Best, the teenage daughter fusses at her parents for not being more strict with her younger sister Kathy. Then Betty becomes a camp counselor and finds that Kathy is put in her charge!

Quiz — At 9:30 on channel 9 Cliff Arquette has a secret for the I've Got a Secret panel.

Drama — On Wagon Train at 7:30 on channel 7, a land shark sells worthless land to people aboard the wagon train; at the same time on channel 9 the Gray Ghost rides again in the days of the War Between the States.

Strange Defense is the drama on channel 9 at 8:30, followed by the Millionaire, at 9. The story tells of an American medical student in Paris who falls in love with a beautiful girl.

At 9 on channel 7 Kraft Theatre presents, in color, Death for Sale. Ida Lupino stars in Channel 7 Playhouse at 10:30, while on channel 9 at the same hour Whirlybirds take to the air in Homeleide Haven.

Thursday Night

Comedy — There's trouble on the Real McCoys at 8:30 on channel 9 when Grampa's favorite cook colons up to a stranger. Cleo, the Bassett hound, wisecracks her way

Entertainer Plays for Lions

Mrs. Alice Dixon, played a ukulele and sang Hawaiian numbers at the Morehead City Lions Club meeting at the Hotel Fort Macon Thursday night. Mrs. Dixon was the guest of president Elmer Watson.

Among the songs she sang were Summertime, Swamp Girl, Weimowe and Aicelimi Lo. She played instrumental numbers, too, according to publicity chairman O. N. Allred. Mrs. Dixon, at one time, had an hour-long television show, Mr. Allred said.

Visitors at the meeting were Lion Lee Edwards of Kinston, Ellen Espy who came with her father Eugene Espy, and P. L. Smith, guest of his father-in-law, J. E. Crowe.

Engineer Gets Two Applications For Construction

District Engineer Col. H. C. Rowland reports that two construction applications from this county are in his office at Wilmington.

The Harkers Island Electric Membership Corp. has made application for a permit to construct an overhead wire crossing the Straits in Core Sound.

Plans submitted show the proposed wire crossing will have a vertical clearance of 71 feet above mean high water over the navigation channel.

E. Neal Jones and Claude Brown, Marshallberg, have made application for a permit to construct an extension to an existing wharf in the boat basin at Marshallberg. Plans are for a marginal wharf extending 70 feet along the shore on the north side of the boat basin.

Colonel Rowland asks to be advised if any persons have objections to either project from a standpoint of navigation. Objections will be received in his office, Customhouse, Wilmington, until Aug. 28.

John Valentine Named Civil Defense Director

John Valentine, Marshallberg, was appointed county Civil Defense director by county commissioners yesterday.

Mr. Valentine will meet Tuesday, Aug. 12, with state Civil Defense officials to discuss Civil Defense planning in the county.

News Briefs

Bids Requested
The county board decided yesterday to ask for bids on paving new roads and parking lots around the courthouse. Gray Hassell, engineer, was asked to draw up specifications.

Beauticians to Meet
All beauticians in the county who are currently licensed are invited to a meeting at the Rex Restaurant at 8 p.m. tomorrow. The meeting has been called by Mrs. Charles Noe, Beaufort, member of the State Board of Cosmetic Arts.

Air-Conditioning Installed
Installed in July in the jail-keeper's quarters in the county jail and in the sheriff's office, highway patrol office, and interrogating room were air conditioning units. Sheriff Hugh Salter said the jail kitchen and jail cells are not air-conditioned.

through the People's Choice at 9 on channel 7.

Quiz — Groucho Marx conducts his hilarious quiz program at 8 on channel 7. Among his guests are a Polish jet pilot and a Congressional Medal of Honor winner. At 10 on channel 7, Bill Cullen is host on the Price is Right, in color.

Drama — A college basketball star is killed in an auto accident on Decoy at 7:30 on channel 7; on channel 9 at the same time is the Lone Ranger. Zorro ends up fighting his father at 8 on channel 9. Joe Friday goes into action at 8:30 on 7 and the notorious James boys of western fame are the theme of Playhouse 90 at 9:30 on channel 9; the play, Bitter Heritage.

W. S. King School Wins Accreditation

H. L. Joslyn, county superintendent of schools, has received word from Raleigh that the W. S. King School, Morehead City, has been accredited.

G. H. Ferguson, Raleigh, director of Negro accreditation, in a letter to Mr. Joslyn, said that the school was accredited as of the 1957-58 school year.

He commended the principal, S. R. McLendon, the faculty, school board, county board of education and all concerned with the school's operation, on the accreditation.

Mr. Ferguson is a former principal of Beaufort School.

County Board

proposal does not include waterway development only. He mentioned industrial sites and transportation.

He especially recommended that consideration be given to expansion of Morehead City's deep water port facilities to the east side of Radio Island, the water area west of Pivers Island, the outer banks and the North River area.

Expansion that way, he remarked, would mean that port expansion need not be farther up the Newport River which would necessitate changing the site of the proposed highway and railroad bridge across Newport River.

If port development were to progress eastward, utilizing fully Beaufort Inlet waters, he said a four-lane bridge would probably be needed across Newport River at the present site, and facilities available in Beaufort could be utilized.

He proposed that somebody present this proposal before the SPA prior to the 1959 legislature.

Commissioner Taylor said that he felt the county board should take further action on getting the load limit lifted on the drawspan on the Harkers Island bridge.

A letter from Sen. Everett Jordan was read, acknowledging receipt of the board's request to make public the names of persons on welfare rolls.

Attending the meeting, in addition to Commissioner Chalk, were Moses Howard, who presided, Odell Merrill and Harrell Taylor, commissioners.

Navy Captain Thanks State Port Personnel

Personnel at Morehead City state port got a pat on the back last week from the Navy.

Capt. W. R. Laughon, USN, commander landing ship flotilla two, of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force wrote to the Morehead City state ports office, thanking them for the cooperation "exhibited in helping to solve the many berthing problems which arose during the recent out-loading of Marine personnel and equipment. . . . Your expert advice and cheerful and friendly way of doing business were greatly appreciated," the captain said.

Town Truck, Car Collide At 22nd and Bay Streets

A 1950 Mercury driven by Cecil Edwards Ballou and a Morehead City truck driven by J. V. Waters, street superintendent, collided at 4:30 p.m. Saturday at 22nd and Bay Streets.

Officer Joe Smith, who investigated, said that Ballou was going west on Bay when the truck, going north on 22nd, turned left on Bay and hit the left front fender of the Mercury, damaging it to the extent of $90.

With August being observed as "See North Carolina" month, the Carteret County Public Library is featuring special display and reference material on North Carolina's "Variety Vacationland".

Club program chairmen are invited to consult a directory of films, slides and other visual aids which can be ordered for programs about places to go and things to see in North Carolina.

Available to program chairmen and speakers, as well as to people planning trips within the state, is a new reference file of booklets and information bulletins on scenic attractions, parks, historical sites, outdoor sports and accommodations from seacoast to mountains. This material supplements the library's permanent collection of books about North Carolina.

"See North Carolina" month is sponsored by the Travel Council of North Carolina. Libraries throughout the State are participating by serving as information centers.

In addition to the booklets mentioned above, the Carteret County library has on display a number of books about the state, the titles of which are listed below:

Cabins in the Laurel by Muriel Earley Sheppard. 1935. Life in the Toe River Valley in the heart of North Carolina's Blue Ridge Mountains.

Carolina Gardens by E. T. S. Shaffer. 1939. Much of this book discusses famous gardens in South Carolina. Gardens in North Carolina included are those at Wilmington, and those in the western part of the state, at Flat Rock, Saluda, Tryon, Hendersonville, Asheville.

The Devil's Tramping Ground and other North Carolina mystery stories by John Harden. 1949.

Dead and Gone by Manley Wade Wellman. 1955. Ten classic murders committed in North Carolina between 1808 and 1914, based on contemporary accounts and records.

The French Broad by Wilma Dykeman. 1955. The story of the river, the valley, and its inhabitants. Unusual occupations such as herb gathering, hog "droving" and fine handicrafts have always set this valley apart. Great Smoky National Park, Pisgah National Forest, and a part of TVA are in the valley. George Vanderbilt's mansion, Biltmore House, is here and so is the home of Thomas Wolfe.

Gift from the Hills; Miss Lucy Morgan's story of her unique Penland School, by Le Gettie Blythe. 1958.

Graveyard of the Atlantic; shipwrecks of the North Carolina Coast by David Stick. 1952.

The Great Smokies and the Blue Ridge, the story of the Southern Appalachians edited by Roderick Peattie. 1943. The story of these mountain ranges, their natural history, vacation opportunities, folkways, climate, arts and crafts, music, forests, flowers and wildlife.

The Hatterasmar by Ben Dixon MacNeill. 1958. Deals with the deeds of pirate days, early colonization, the events of five wars beginning with the American Revolution, the wild ponies, the light houses, the Coast Guard's development, the fishing industry and the commerce and industry that prevailed throughout the years.

The Man and the Boy by Robert Ruark. 1957. The author recreates a happy boyhood spent roaming the fields, woods, and lake shores of coastal North Carolina.

The North Carolina Guide, edited by Blackwell P. Robinson. 1955. Here in one volume is the picture of the Old North State in all its variety — from the beaches and coastal waters of the Atlantic to the wooded highlands of the Great Smokies.

North Carolina, History of a Southern State by Hugh Leffer. 1954. The first one-volume history in a hundred years.

A North Carolina Naturalist, H. H. Brimley; selections from his writings edited by Eugene P. Odum. 1949. Here are reminiscences of days when the water fowl on Currituck Sound were so plentiful that a hunter could easily bag a hundred ducks a day. Here are tales of bear, coon and deer hunts, when often the wild creature turned the tables on his pursuers. Here are accounts of fishing expeditions when the catch might as easily be alligator or loggerhead turtle as drum or bass. A group of articles discusses the giants of nature—sharks, whales, mammoths, and mastodons and their incidence in North Carolina and her waters.

Ocracoke by Carl Goerch. 1955. A Rare Pattern by Lucy Phillips Russell. 1957. A picture of the North Carolina Piedmont in the last four decades of the 19th century. Life in the villages of Chapel Hill, Davidson and Rockingham.

River of the Carolinas: The Santee by Henry Savage Jr. 1956. This is the story of the rugged individuals of the North Carolina mountains as well as the aristocrats of the South Carolina seaboard, with emphasis on the Revolutionary and Civil War periods.

Roaming the Mountains by John Parris. 1955. Western North Carolina is the setting for this collection of stories revealing its history legends and folklore, its tall tales, traditions and ballads.

The Southern Part of Heaven by William Meade Prince. 1950. Chapel Hill at the turn of the century.

Stories Old and New of the Cape Fear Region as told by Louis T. Moore, chairman, New Hanover Historical Commission. 1956.

Tar Heel Ghosts by John Harden. 1954. Over thirty diverting and authentic stories, proving that the state can provide ghosts aplenty.

Tar On My Heels by Bill Sharpe. 1946. A collection of press releases dealing with some North Carolinians and their ways.
