Wed at Harkers Island

Mr. and Mrs. Gene C. Kamplain

Miss Eleanor Joyce Willis of Harkers Island became the bride of Sgt. Gene C. Kamplain, USMC, of Cherry Point in a candlelight ceremony Friday, Aug. 1, at seven-thirty in the Free Grace Pilgrim Holiness Church, Harkers Island.

The Rev. C. C. McMasters, pastor, officiated. The vows were spoken before a background of white gladiolas, ferns and palms. The altar was draped in white covered with ivy. Candelabras entwined with ivy held lighted candles.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Curtis Nelson, organist, and Mr. Hallas Rose, soloist. Mr. Rose sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told, O Promise Me and The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown of nylon jersey, taffeta and lace. The fitted lace bodice featured a round neckline dipping to a V in the back and bracelet length sleeves, highlighted by three bows in the back. The slightly shirred bouffant skirt was of nylon jersey and net over taffeta.

Her hair was attached to a half-hat of lace and taffeta and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and ivy.

Miss Judy Nelson was maid of honor. She wore a gown of light green organza over taffeta fashioned with a round neckline dipping to a V in the back and a full gathered skirt. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and lilies of the valley on a yellow background tied with yellow ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Miss Priscilla Rose, Miss Sharon K. Lewis, Miss Peggy Fulford and Miss Nettie Scott. They wore yellow gowns fashioned like that of the honor attendant and carried nosegays of white carnations and lilies of the valley tied with green ribbons.

Sgt. Bill Sims served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Sgt. Clifford Ford, Sgt. Curtis Barton, Sgt. Robert Little and Sgt. Derald Wilson. All are from Cherry Point.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Willis wore a pink dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Reva Willis served cake and Mrs. Emma Lee Yeomans poured punch.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple are making their home at Cherry Point.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Willis of Harkers Island. Before her marriage she was a student at Smyrna High School and will continue her education at Havelock High School in the fall.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy I. Kamplain of Birmingham, Ala. He is a graduate of Phillips High School, Birmingham, and is now stationed at Cherry Point.
