Married Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Tommy Lee Willis

Erlanger Baptist Church, Lexington, was the setting Sunday afternoon at four o'clock for the marriage of Miss Frances Joanne Rivenbark of Lexington and Tommy Lee Willis of Beaufort route one.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Clayton Rivenbark Sr. of Lexington and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vannie Eason Willis Jr. of Beaufort route one.

A program of traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Donald Mitchell Brown of Plymouth, sorority sister of the bride, organist, and Mr. Carroll McDade of Lexington, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over satin designed with a portrait neckline and long sleeves ending in calla points over the hands. The bouffant skirt of ruffled tulle featured an overskirt of lace.

Her elbow length veil was attached to a Juliet cap outlined with seed pearls and she carried a white lace fan centered with a white orchid and showered with Stephanotis.

Miss Jacquelyn Faye Rivenbark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. David Melvin III of Morehead City was matron of honor. They wore baby blue street length dresses of lace with satin cummerbunds.

In their hair were pearl bandeaux with brief veiling and they carried white lace fans with pink and white feathered carnations and Stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lillian Jean Billings, Miss Janice Elizabeth Martin and Miss Ailee Cornelia McCrary, all of Lexington, and Miss Emily Aileen Waters of Plymouth, college roommate of the bride.

They wore dresses like those of the honor attendants in cotillion blue. They also wore bandeaux with brief veiling and carried fans with carnations and Stephanotis.

Mr. Vannie E. Willis Jr. was best man for his son. Ushers were George Max Barber of Pine Level, Ralph Barrow Gray of Williamson and William Wood Uzzel of Goldsboro, all fraternity brothers.

Mrs. Safrit Announces Need for Scout Leaders

Mrs. Leonard Safrit, neighborhood chairman for the Girl Scouts, has announced that the need for leaders and assistants is most urgent.

Response from mothers and those interested in Scouting has been very slow and Mrs. Safrit says that unless a suitable number of workers is obtained, Scouting activities will have to be dropped.

A finance chairman must be secured soon. Also badly needed are a fair chairman, banquet chairman, and several leaders and assistants.

A leaders' course will be held in the county Sept. 4, 5, 8, 9, and 10. Anyone interested in working with Girl Scouts or Brownies is asked to contact Mrs. Safrit.
