Cherry Point.—Cherry Point Staff Non-Commissioned Officers Toastmasters Club 935 held its annual meeting recently in the Rex Restaurant, Morehead City, in recognition of ladies night.

Toastmasters present were S/Sgt. and Mrs. Ed Meyer, T/Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Bourgholtzer, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Al Steele, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Bob Spann, S/Sgt. Thurlow Ellis and S/Sgt. John Stafford. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilkins of the Carteret County Toastmasters Club were guests.

Toastmaster Al Steele led the meeting during the table topics fun-portion of the session.

Each person was given a business card as merchandise salesman, contractors, factory representatives, etc. After identifying each individual, the party was then asked to give a description or sales pitch about his or her occupation. Speakers of the evening for the educational portion of Toastmasters were Sergeant Steele, who spoke on "Silent Hi-Fi", an entertaining speech using gestures and voice modulation; Sergeant Ellis, who delivered an impromptu speech, "Why I Like a Station Wagon", a comparison of the station wagon against the sedan; and Bill Wilkins, speaking on, "How to Build a Boat Dock", a particularly interesting speech since he was restricted from all hand gestures.

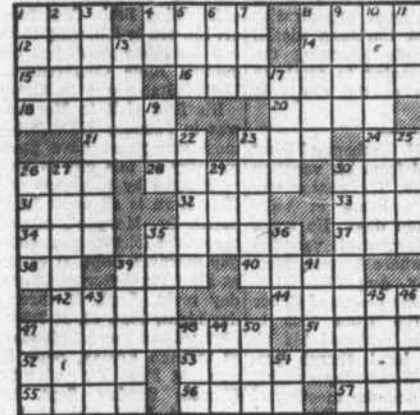

A special invitation is extended to all Staff NCO's who are interested in joining Toastmasters. For more information contact S/Sgt. Ed Meyer, Wing reproduction center.
