Grid Season to Open Friday Night

Morehead to Invade Lair Of New Bern High Bears

The Morehead City Eagles will travel to New Bern Friday night to meet the strong New Bern Bears in a nonconference tilt. Even though the Eagles will be playing a straight AA school, Morehead City fans are expecting a good game and a possible victory for their Eagles.

At present the Eagle backfield seems to be set with Freddie Oglesby at fullback, James Guthrie and Gary Guthrie at half-backs and Jackie McQueen at

Fall Mullet Run Begins; Good Fishing Ahead

By BOB SIMPSON

Since last week's wet nor'easter Since last week's wet nor'easter, fishing has been very fast on the pick-up. In fact, it didn't stop completely. During the wind and rain Earl Latham of Cary came by to tell us he'd caught a 7-pound 5 ounce sheepshead out at Thompounce sheepshead out at Thomp-son's and gray trout fishermen around Newport River bridge had

We asked Sam Ballou if he had a fishing report; "Nothing but a big school of mullet going out the inlet," was his answer. A newcomer to the beach described large schools of snub-nosed fish cruising along the shore. Those, we informed him proudly, are mullet. Has anyone else noticed that the new atomic sub designs are mullet-shaped?

Evidence of the great improve ment in fishing was brought in by Salty, with 32 dolphin; Mary Z. with 9 dolphin, 6 kings, 20 false albacore and a couple of Spanish; Bunny Too, with 22 dolphin, 5 cobia (two of them at 38 and 45 pounds), 14 false albacore, 2 kings, 2 Spanish and 3 amberjack.

Headboat fishing was good dur-ing the weekend. Frank Collins and Lee Godwin of Franklinton caught 50 pounds of mixed fish aboard Danco. Except for bottom fish, things are a little slow right now for the inshore piers, but skiff fishermen are doing well with gray trout and flounder. We've also had reports of good catches of pom-

County Road Official Reports on Construction

J. L. Humphrey, county roa superintendent, reported over the weekend that the highway depart-ment is nearing completion of work on resurfacing Highway 70 from Atlantic to its eastern termboro and Emerald Isle.

The Seadogs are now in a new conference with Vancetentnea, Farmville, Robersonville and Ayden. Coach V. M. Morrison, faced coach V. M. Morrison, faced with making a winner out of a group of green players, still has not decided on a starting lineup for the game. Only a few players are really sure of starting the Quarterback Pud Hassell and fullback Ernest House seem set but the halfback positions are still not settled. Several boys still have hopes of landing a starting berth in the backfield.

Get Starting Nod

Ends Gordon Becton and Calvin Jones, both returning lettermen, have won starting berths as has tackle John Smith. Dallas Willis, last year's regular center, has returned from Florida and is round-ing into shape to play Friday night. Lonnie Dill, who was running as first string center before Willis re-turned, will still see lots of action in the line. All other positions in the line are open to a good deal of speculation and even the coach says he is not too sure which boys will earn starcing nods. The Seadogs have been holding rough practice sessions, highlighted by rousing scrimmages that show just what is in a player. Coach Morrison is still stressing the fundamentals. When a player misses a block the coach stops action and makes the player walk through the play then run it several times to be sure he knows what his job is. Team Jells The Seadogs are looking mor and more like a team instead of the group of green players that re-ported for practice two weeks ago. By the time Friday rolls around, Coach Morrison should field a scrappy team that can hold its own in the rugged competition it will face this year.

The players are optimistic. They have been working hard and are in good shape. "We feel like we can beat anybody," one of them said. "The coach tells us all we have to do is play heads-up ball the whole time we are on the field. I guess anybody who doesn't will be sitting on the bench."
