Purcell-Brinson Vows Spoken

Mrs. William Bruce Purcell

Miss Darlene Bennett Brinson of this city and William Bruce Purcell of Jacksonville, Fla., were married in a double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at three o'clock at First Baptist Church.

The Rev. R. T. Willis Jr. of Hamlet officiated. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolas and three seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral tapers.

Mrs. George Mizesko, organist, and Miss Bernice Willis, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Selections included Always, Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life and Wedding Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of lace and taffeta fashioned with a scalloped square neckline and a butterfly bow at the back of the waist. The full gathered skirt featured a pleated net insert.

Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion was attached to a queen's crown of simulated pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of freched white carnations.

Miss Katrina Anne Lewis was maid of honor. She wore a blue ballerina length gown fashioned with a strapless bodice with stole attached and full skirt of lace over taffeta.

She wore a half-bonnet of matching net trimmed with flowers on the underbrim and carried a ballerina bouquet of pink and white flowers tied with pink ribbons.

Miss Linda Diane Brinson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pink ballerina length gown fashioned like that of the honor attendant, with matching headpiece. Her bouquet was of blue and white flowers tied with blue ribbons.

Deonard Quillen, shipmate of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Leonard Quillen, Joel Eastman and Curtis Bennett, all shipmates of the bridegroom, and Lennis Brinson of Morehead City.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Brinson wore a rose lace dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule at the Macon cottage at Atlantic Beach and have as their guests Miss Celeste Barnette of Raleigh and Miss Babs Baskerville of Clearwater, Fla.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Edwards, who made their home at the Alice Hoffman Episcopal Conference Center on Bogue Banks this summer, have moved to Havelock and are living at Shepard Street and Hollywood Boulevard.

Mrs. Perry Taylor III, Miss Renee Ketur and the Misses Dianne and Grace Roberts spent Thursday in Kinston.

Nora Faye Guthrie Weds Donald G. Dixon Friday

Miss Nora Faye Guthrie of this city became the bride of Donald Gray Dixon of Beaufort in a simple single ring ceremony Friday evening at seven-thirty in the Franklin Memorial Methodist Church.

The Rev. Samuel S. Moore, pastor, officiated against a background of white gladiolas and greenery. Miss Jane Langdale, organist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Walter Lewis. She wore a street length sheer white dress with fitted bodice and round neckline accented with a bow in the back, with a hoop skirt.

She wore a shoulder length lace veil attached to a satin cap and carried a white satin prayer book topped with three white carnations and showered with satin streamers.

Miss Alta Edwards was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a street length blue taffeta dress designed with a fitted bodice and full skirt. Her flowers were white carnations.

Mr. Bud Dixon of Beaufort, brother of the bridegroom, best man and ushers were Carl Lewis III and Joe Dixon.

The mother of the bride wore a white sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule of the church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guthrie of this city. She attended Morehead City High School and is employed at White-way Laundry.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dixon of Beaufort. He is a rising senior at Beaufort High School.

The couple is making their home in Beaufort.

How Can We Say It?

Memo

To all personnel of New River's newest store. How would you describe our store to Eastern North Carolina when there has never been another one like it? That's the problem?

We can discuss the ready-to-wear department with dresses by Dan Millstein, Mr. Mort and Anne Fogety and the suits by Davidow.

We might brag about the bags and belts by Garay or the hats by Schiaparelli. And it should be mentioned that our store will be "Catering to Cosmopolitan Tastes."

But when all is said and done, will the women who appreciate smart fashions know that it is here? We certainly hope so.

(signed) Mr. A and Mr. Z

P.S. Remember that each department must look really special by 8 o'clock tomorrow night. It will be the Grandest Opening ever.
