Birthday Club Welcomes Nine New Members

Everybody's getting aboard the Birthday Club band wagon. Nine new members this week. Isn't that wonderful?

Among our new members are a set of twins, Bonnie and Connie Hancock, 6 years old, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Hancock, Harkers Island.

Other new members are Zora Bable O'Neal III, Morehead City; Lisa Dianne and Joe Merrill, Pascagoula, Miss.; Karon Primrose Grunwell, Homestead, Fla.; John Edward Guthrie, Harkers Island; Helen Lorraine Day, Fort Worth, Tex.; and Eleanor Pearl McIntosh, Beaufort.

John Edward Guthrie, called Eddie, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Guthrie, Harkers Island. He sent his picture as did most of the other new club members this week.

Helen Lorraine Day is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Day, 4108 Wimon Dr., Fort Worth. She has kinfolk on Cedar Island.

To join the Birthday Club, all you have to do is send in the blank on this page, being sure to fill in all the information requested. There is no charge for publishing your picture in the paper, so be sure to include one if you can. A good snapshot is fine.

Each year on your birthday, you will receive a birthday card from THE NEWS-TIMES, and on the week of your birthday your name will appear in the Happy Birthday column of the Happy Times. Won't you join?

Plane Wrecks on Take-Off Friday at Portsmouth

Jesse Lockhart, Morehead City, and Odell Merrill, Beaufort, were involved in a plane crash Friday morning at Portsmouth. Mr. Lockhart, who was piloting his Cessna 120, got a small cut on his forehead. Mr. Merrill was not hurt.

The plane nosed over on take-off, causing considerable damage. Mr. Lockhart said that he may try to repair the plane there. If that can't be done, it will be brought back to the mainland on a barge.

Jesse Taylor, Beaufort pilot, flew to Portsmouth to bring the wreck victims home.

The Philippine Independence Day is the same as that of the United States, July 4.

Laramie, Wyo. (AP)—Police who picked up a teen-age boy in a stolen taxicab asked him why he did it.

Grant, Bergman Team Delightfully in Film

Indiscreet, starring Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman, is one of the more delightful modern comedies to come out of Hollywood in recent months.

A story of two lovers, it rides on a racy, graceful note which turns intriguingly discordant with the smash of a perfume bottle through a mirror. The charming Mr. Grant, as Phillip Adams, is never so charming as when he is being made a fool of, which Miss Bergman neatly does in the final moments of the film.

Indiscreet plays today at the Morehead Theatre for the last time.

James M. Barrie's forever-and-forever fantasy, Peter Pan, starts at the Morehead Theatre tomorrow. Through the artistry of Walt Disney, the whole family, from Grandpa to grandson, will delight in re-living the loveliness of childhood.

Peter Pan, a re-release by Buena Vista, will play through Saturday.

Raw Wind in Eden is playing today at the City and plays for the last time tomorrow. Starring Esther Williams and Jeff Chandler, it was filmed in Italy.

The Ride Back, an adult western, is the story of a United States law officer who goes to Mexico to bring back a prisoner (Anthony Quinn) to stand trial. The crises encountered on the ride back provide the audience with an emotion-filled 79 minutes.

It's a lot of monkey business Saturday at the City with the twin bill, King Kong and Mighty Joe Young, each with an ape as the leading character.

Most adults consider this horror stuff as fantastic, if not downright laughable. Impressionable children or young adults will probably never be able to get it out of their minds.

Terry Moore and Ben Johnson play the romantic human leads in Mighty Joe Young. Fay Wray is the human that King Kong falls in love with.

Richmond, Va. (AP)—A diesel locomotive stole the show at Richmond's Armed Forces parade. The parade was crossing the Belt Line bridge when the train rounded the bend and the engineer began to sound his horn in marching time—toot—toot, toot, toot, toot—until the train disappeared.
