Writer Reveals Different Wording on $20 Bills

Waukegan, Ill. (AP)—Waukeganites sprung several $20 bills on local bankers and asked: "Is it good with or without the 'The' in 'The White House' underneath the picture?"

A few merchants turned down bills not carrying the word "The." But the bankers said both bills were as good as gold.

The bill with "The White House" on it is a Johnny-come-lately as currency goes. It became standard on the $20 bill immediately after President Truman added the balcony on the White House. Prior to this, "White House" was standard.

Three-Car Wreck

A three-car wreck last Thursday, on the eve of Labor Day weekend, attracted crowds and two ambulances. The wreck occurred in front of Dr. C. E. Paden's on highway 70, west of Morehead City. In the right foreground is the car driven by Mrs. Edmond Willis, which was forced into the ditch when the Buick (black arrow) hit it. The Buick had first smashed into the rear of the Pontiac (white arrow).

No one was seriously hurt. The Buick was driven by Franklin Dennis, route 1 Newport, and the Pontiac by William Styron, route 1 Morehead City. The Pontiac was being towed by a pickup truck (not shown). The tow-line parted and it was coasting at 20 miles an hour when the Buick came up from behind and couldn't stop. R. H. Brown was the investigating highway patrolman.
