Salvage Operation

This shot of the dramatic accident Sunday at the Atlantic Beach bridge was taken by O. W. Winger, Newport, from a boat. Because the bridge couldn't be closed completely, and the accident was on the south side, people have been wondering how the Morehead City wreckers got on the south side of the bridge. The bridge could be closed far enough so that the wreckers could pass over, but not far enough to allow safe passage of usual traffic. The bridge was opened to highway traffic at 7:30 a.m. Sunday, four and a half hours after the accident happened.

John Stuart Murphy, Greenville, the driver of the car, was not hurt. He was charged with driving drunk.

Handy Gadget

Westfield, N. J. (AP) — Peter Lanza has patented a bite-proof hand he hopes will earn enough to feed him. Tired of being nipped while training his pet parakeets, he invented a plastic imitation hand, which can be placed in the bird's cage to accustom it to handling.

Monkeys Shine

Montreal (AP)—Monkeys proved the most popular animals in a contest conducted by the Montreal Parks Department to determine what animals it should acquire for the proposed Angrigon Park zoo. More than 21,000 school children participated.
