Miss Murdock, Edward E. Dunn Are Wed at Wildwood Church

Miss Jessie Mae Murdock of Wildwood and Edward Earl Dunn of Newport were married Friday, Aug. 22, at seven-thirty in the Wildwood Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Alvis M. Daniel, pas-tor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. W. W. Clarke Jr., cousin of the bride, organist, and Mr. Bobby Bell, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladiolas and greenery and seven-branched can-delabra holding white cathedral tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length gown designed and made by her mother. The lace bodice featured a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves and was accented with tiny self-covered buttons.

The bouffant skirt was of im-ported lace over taffeta. She wore a waist length veil of bridal illu-sion attached to a small lace crown embroidered with seed pearls and carried a white orchid on a white prayer book.

Miss Ada Laura Murdock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of pink embroidered chiffon with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Carthene Howell, Miss Agnes Mae Gaskins and Miss San-dra Lee Garner were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of white em-broidered chiffon with blue and orchid taffeta cummerbunds and large bows giving a bustle effect in the back.

The bridesmaids carried bou-quets of pink carnations tied with pastel ribbons.

Mr. Needham Dunn, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Clarence Mur-dock, Mr. Paul Garner and Mr. Dalton Russell.

Mrs. Edward E. Dunn

A reception was held in the church recreation room following the ceremony. Mrs. E. W. Guthrie of Morehead City greeted guests and Mrs. Claude Murdoch Sr. of Newport presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Jesse E. Lewis poured punch and Mrs. Harvey R. Gas-kins Jr. served cake.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Murdock. She is a graduate of Newport High School and is employed at Rose's Store, Morehead City. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dunn, graduated from Newport High School and is employed at Cherry Point.
